VOL IX—NO. 2693. NEW-YORK, TUESDAY, MAY 8, 1860. PRICE TWO CENTS.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Speech of Gen. Davis, of Mississippi, in Support of his Territorial Resolutions.

Important Debate upon the Tariff in the House.

THE TALK OF WASHINGTON POLITICIANS.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

Washington, Monday, May 7.

The Sergeant-at-Arms has summoned to appear before the Covode Investigating Committee, to-morrow morning, P. M. Martin, Geo. V. A. Lathrop, Hon. Chas. E. Stewart and Joseph Ledlie. It is supposed that they will be questioned in regard to the Detroit Post-office while under the care of Mr. O'Flynn; also as to whether they know anything in regard to money having been paid to secure the passage of the English bill in either branch of Congress.

SENATOR DAVIS' EFFORT.

An immense crowd congregated in the Senate to-day, to listen to the speech of Senator Daais. This audience was brought together, not by the talents of Mr. Davis, but by his prognosticated attack upon Judge Douglas. He spoke with none of the effect of Seward or Douglas, and though he had an audience equal to that by which those Senators' speeches were listened to, he could not hold it. The speech was not remarkable. It contained no new points, except a quotation from Caleb Cushing when Attorney General, which was lugged in for the purpose of paying Caleb a big compliment. Davis is understood to be laying his pipes very carefully for Frank Pierce, being strongly seconded by Cushing. The great failure of his speech to-day consisted in the fact that it was too politic, and that he did not "sail in" against Mr. Douglas with any severity. His colleague, Brown, in a fifteen minutes' speech, took the wind completely out of his sails.

THE TARIFF.

John Sherman, Maj. Schwartz and Mr. Grow made speeches on the Tariff bill in the House, to-day. On Wednesday the bill will come up as the special order, and Mr. Sherman is determined to press a vote upon it. It will probably pass the house with some amendments.

A MINISTER TO SARDINIA.

Mr. Burlingame's bill for the establishment of a Sardinian Ministry passed the House, to day, without opposition. Mr. Burlingame anticipated objection from Mr. Garnett, who dissented from his whereas the other day, but the unanimity precluded Mr. Burlingame's effort.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

Mr. Burlingame has named a son of Benjamin Heath, Detective Police Officer of Boston, for a scholarship in the Naval School at Annopolis.

Adams' Express Company made a handsomg thing financially, out of the necessities of the delegates at Charleston.

The Naval Committee of the House will report a bill soon for the establishment of Butterfield's Mexican and Gulf Steamship Mail line. It is proposed to connect this line with the New-York and Boston Southern Steamship lines, and it is understood that the New-York and Dastern members will oppose this bill Q.

From the Associate Press.

Washington, Monday, May 7.

Ad address to the seceders from the Charleston Convention, showing the urgent necessity for their return to the National Democratic Convention at the adjourned meeting in June, was in circulation to-day for the signatures of members of Congress. The movement is intended to forestall the meeting of Conventions in the seceding States, to supply the vacancies occasioned by a withdrawal of delegates.

The Washington Navy-yard is being put in a better condition than it has been for years past, and extensive arrangements are there being made for the reception of the Japanese Embassy.

The number of delegates passing through Washington on their way to Baltimore to attend the Constitutional Union Convention, is larger than was anticipated. All the States will be represented except those of the Pacific coast.

It is supposed that not more than about twenty Republican members of Congress will attend the Chicago Convention.

SENATE.

Washington, Monday, May 7.

The galleries are crowded; a large number of ladies are present.

Mr. Chandler, of Michigan, (Rep.,) offered a resolution to admit Governors of States to the privileges of the floor. Referred to the Library Committee.

A private bill for the relief of Israel Johnson was passed.

Mr. Anthony, of Rhode Island, (Rep.,) presented a remonstrance of patentees and mechanics against such an alteration of the Patent Laws as shall take from the applicants the right of appeal from the decision of the Comissioner.

The bill to settle the titles of certain lands set apart for the use of half-breed Indians in Kansas was taken up and passed.

Mr. Doolittle, of Wisconsin, (Rep.,) presented resolutions of the Wisconsin Legislature in favor of the Homestead bill, and against the discrimination proposed against foreigners. Ordered to be printed.

Mr. Davis' resolutions came up.

Mr. Davis, of Mississippi, (Dem.,) addressed the Senate. He said his resolutions were little more than a mere announcement of the principles of the Constitution. The present difficulties were the same which the founders of the Government had to compose. He would not argue about national and inherent rights, but would plant himself on the Constitution, which all have sworn to support. When the tempter entered the Garden of Eden, he was the first teacher of the higher law. From the effect of the introduction of that higher law, came sin and death. Why then, talk of national rights? Who was to sit as Judge to try them? The Constitution was the law of every American, and he argued that no question outside of the forms of law and order were contained in it. One great source of difficulty was the theory that this was a Government of one people, instead of a compact between separate sovereignties. This desire of separate and independent communities brought about the early settlement of this continent. The Declaration of Independence was not for the Colonies united, but for them separately, and the Constitution was not adopted by the mass of the people, but by the States severally. This was further sustained by the circumstance of the irregular periods at which the Constitution was ratified by the different States. He read from the debates of the New-York Legislature, and the Legislatures of other States, on the ratification of the Constitution, to support his views, wherein ground is taken that the States could at any time, when it was necessary resume the powers which they had delegated to the Government. He referred to cotton as the great bond of the Union between the States, which was important to the manufacturers of the North. The diversity of position of the two sections rendered a free interchange of commodities necessary. How surprising, then, that that book should receive the commendation of a large number of Northern representatives, which found fault because the South used the surplus proceeds of Northern manufactures. The South demanded protection, first, because it was its right; second, because it was the duty of the General Government. Mr. Davis read many distinguished authorities to show that no power was given to the General Government to coerce the States, and that the idea of a community of independence prevailed among the leading men of all sections at the formation of the Government. He also asserted that the General Government had no power to limit the importations of any State. If it be a protective duty by which the States are taxed, by what right is slave property to be deprived of this protection? On this issue, after days of discussion, they saw the Democratic Convention broken up, and the Party uniting joyfully for its funeral. He had faith, however, that the Democracy still lived, that it would honestly meet the issue, and that the masses of the country would sustain it. The Whig Party had ceased to live. Differing with it on the points at issue, he would render homage to its faithful adherence to what it thought right. Then came the Radical Party, which sought to overturn the Constitution. Thus it was that many members of the old Whig Party were acting with the Democracy now as the only conservative party. He trusted the hopes of the conservative element would not be disappointed, and, thanks to Providence, he believed it would revive and reunite. Mr. Davis referred to the fourth and fifth of his resolutions, which asserted the right of slave property to protection in the Territories, and the duty of Congress to see that this protection was afforded. He stood half way between those who asserted the absolute power of Congress over the Territories, and Squatter Sovereignty men. Congress had power to establish temporary governments in Territories. He read judicial authorities to sustain the views embodied in his resolutions, and asked how that could now be considered a judicial question which had already been decided. The umpire selected as a referee in the controversy had decided that neither Congress nor the Territorial Legislature had the power to impair the right to property. He was less now than ever disposed to submit to the doctrine of Squatter Sovereignty. It was first brought forward by a good and great man in 1848, who feared that the Government would not stand the rude shock of contending parties. It was a fallacy that should be exploded. What was the result in Kansas, where the experiment was first tried? Did it succeed? No. The Government had to interpose to prevent desolation by civil war. Congress had no right to abdicate any power conferred on it as a trustee. Looking toward Mr. Douglas, he asked, what consequence to us is our retention in place when weighed against the interests of the country? Of reason, right and justice, what is there to sustain your policy? He then argued to show the absurdity of the idea that Congress could clothe its mere agent with powers which it did not itself possess; this was allowing the recipient more than the donor had to give. He had heard the idea of non-intervention in the Senate of the United States, which had been hammered out to embrace boundless regions. He denied that non-intervention, as it was formerly understood, denied all right of Congress to legislate in regard to Slavery. At the very time the doctrine was broached, the Fugitive Slave law was enacted and legislation taken in regard to Slavery in the Territories in the District of Columbia. He read Mr. Clay's opinions on the subject, to show that he who was the originator of the doctrine never gave it the interpretation claimed by the advocates of Popular Sovereignty. The Senator from Illinois, in 1850, opposed every proposition which passed the Senate, and voted for the prohibition of Slavery from the Territories. He believed he did so under instructions. In 1854, Congress, in enacting Territorial bills, left out the provision requiring the Territorial Legislature to submit its acts to the revision of Congress, and this was claimed as a concession of the power of Congress. This, however, was not so, as Congress subsequently inserted a provision in the other bills; moreover, Congress could not abdicate its powers. He asked no more for a slave code than for a horse or a machine code. He did want the Territories to understand that they had no right to interfere with the rights of property, and if they did so, he wanted Congress to intervene. He only asked that the Constitutional rights of the Southern States should be respected. He hoped that Mississippi would never surrender her equality of right to avoid any danger. The country had reached a period of civil war. An armed band had invaded a Southern State, and the question was, what must be done to save the country? Lecturers had been sowing broadcast throughout the land incendiary doctrines, and so he called on the Senate to promote correct principles and bring back the Government to the doctrines of the Constitution. They were asked if the party professing hostility to their institutions got possession of the Government, to await calmly an overt act. Was not a declaration of war an overt act? If a hostile army stood before your city, must you wait till it is sacked? He would meet them at the outer gate. Yet for this the South is charged with menacing the Government. The determination of the South to maintain her equal rights, is tortured into a menace. It was not a threat, but a warning to prevent that which was dreaded, not desired. This question has been tampered with too long, and it is time that the truth was asserted in unequivocal language.

Much of Mr. Davis' speech was inaudible. He complained of indisposition.

Mr. Brown, of Mississippi, (Dem.,) replied to a remark of Mr. Davis, that the second resolution of the former affiliated with the views of Mr. Douglas. If this could be shown, he would strike out any language susceptible of such a construction. He, therefore, withdrew the second and third of his resolutions, and offered the following in lieu thereof:

Resolved, That experience having already shown that the statutes and the Common law do not afford sufficient protection to slave property, some of the Territories having failed and others having refused to pass such laws, it has become the duty of Congress to interpose and pass such laws as shall give to Slave property in the Territories that protection which is given to other kinds of property.

That there might be no mistake, he would say that he would support any opponent of Squatter Sovereignty, if Mississippi alone was with him. But if he left the old Democratic ship he would not go to sea in a cock-boat. He was always opposed to Squatter Sovereignty, and no one knew it better than the Senator from Illinois.

Mr. Clingman, of North Carolina, (Dem.,) said most of the speech of the Senator from Mississippi met his approval. He could not, however, admit that there was no middle ground between non-intervention and the power of Congress over the Territories. When Mr. Cass asserted the doctrine of non-intervention, such men as Daniel S. Dickinson and John C. Calhoun indorsed it. He read a long extract from one of Mr. Calhoun's speeches to sustain this assertion. That doctrine gained ground till 1850, when it became part of the public law by the votes of the South. He regarded it as a compromise between the sections, which ought to be observed. He read the last clause of the Kansas-Nebraska act to show that Congress intended to abrogate all power to establish, protect or prohibit Slavery in a Territory, which principle of non-intervention was reasserted in the Cincinnati platform. There is where the party stood now. It was a compromise between the North and South, and should be respected. Admitting that the Supreme Court had, in the Dred Scott decision, asserted the power of Congress to protect Slavery in the Territories, was there any occasion to exercise this power? None at all. No necessity existed to break the compromise.

Without concluding, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Washington, Monday, May 7.

Mr. Burlingame, of Massachusetts, (Rep.,) from the Committee on Foreign Affairs, reported a bill authorizing the President to appoint a full minister to Sardinia, at a salary of $12,000, with a Secretary of Legation at $1,800 per annum. Passed without debate.

Mr. Grow, of Pennsylvania, (Rep.,) desired to postpone the Territorial business, which was the special order for to-day, until Thursday and Friday. The reason was that some of his political friends desired at the close of the week to go to the Chicago Convention, who did not care so much to be on the record on the Territorial business as on the Tariff question, which would be the next important subject of consideration.

Mr. Houston, of Alabama, (Dem.,) was not willing to vote on the Tariff until after the Chicago Convention.

Mr. Phelps, of Missouri, (Dem.,) suggested that the Tariff might be postponed, and the House could proceed to the consideration of the Post-office and other appropriation bills.

Mr. Grow said he last week moved to postpone the Territorial business till this week, because gentlemen on the Democratic side were absent at Charleston. He did not think it fair to consider it when the House was thin. Those who desire to go to Chicago should, as a matter of courtesy, be similarly accommodated.

Mr. Morris, of Illinois, (Dem.,) gave notice that when the Territorial bills come up, he will move an amendment, giving the power to the people of the organized territories to elect all their own officers.

Mr. Clark, of Missouri, (Dem.,) expressed his willingness to grant the indulgence.

Mr. Grow's motion prevailed by a large majority.

Mr. Boteler, of Virginia, (Amer.,) voted no, saying that the Union Convention will meet on Wednesday, which seemed to have been ignored by both Democratic and Republican parties.

Mr. Grow—I thought you'd get through in a day.

Mr. Boteler—I think I can assure you that it wil be a harmonious Convention.

Mr. Sherman, of Ohio, (Rep.,) offered a resolution that the debate on the Tariff be closed to-morrow at 1 o'clock.

Mr. Houston said this subject should not be forced on the House unexpectedly. He moved an amendment extending the debate till Wednesday at 2 o'clock. Disagreed to—62 against 108.

Mr. Houston would as soon have the bill gagged through in twenty minutes as agree to Mr. Sherman's proposition. He moved to lay this on the table. Disagreed to.

Mr. Sherman's resolution was then adopted.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union on the Tariff.

Mr. Sherman said the act of 1857 was complex, crude and ill-digested—passed by a combination of hostile sentiments, and one that never ought to have been passed; so it should be now repealed. This act took effect on the 1st of July, 1857, when there were $17,000,000 in the Treasury, and on the first of this month the public debt was over sixty-five and a half millions. He referred to facts and figures to show the ordinary receipts were far below the amount necessary to meet the expenses of the Government, and pointed out wherein large reductions can be made in the appropriations. If gentlemen would only devote their energies and intellects to the ordinary operations of the Government, the total expenses could be reduced to $50,000,000 annually. As to the Post-office transportation there should be economy, and the expenses of the Department ought to be paid out of its current receipts. He spoke of private expresses as being more expeditious and safe than the public conveyances. There was little hope of material reductions, however, while party spirit and sectionalism are rampant in the land. He congratulated the country that sectionalism at Charleston had reached the lowest depth of political degradation, and could do no harm in the future. The public lands are not to be looked to in the future as a source of public revenue. The bill now under consideration will yield from sixty to sixty-five millions per annum. Specific duties will give twenty-five per centum more than ad valorem, as they will to a great extent cut off frauds and false invoices. He at some length advocated the passage of the pending bill, which he considered simple, certain and efficient, affording reasonable protection to the interests of all sections of the country. This, he contended, should not be treated as a party measure. It was extraordinary that an Administration which had been running the country largely in debt should oppose a measure which will extricate them from this condition.

Mr. Schwartz, of Pennsylvania, (Anti-Lecompton Dem.,) rose to vindicate his character. He, together with his colleague, Mr. Hickman, and Mr. Haskin, of New-York, had been assailed by the Constitution, the official organ of Mr. Buchanan, a paper not sustained by public patronage, but fed by Federal plunder, and which attempts to degrade those who dare advocate the people's rights and interests. He represented the large Jeffersonian constituency of Berks County, which was not more uncompromising in its hostility to treachery and corruption in office than to the infamous career of the present Administration. He spoke of his predecessor (J. Glancy Jones) as having truckled to power and supported the loathsome English-Kansas bill. The Constitution had used toward him language which would shock even the indecencies of Billingsgate. He would rather be plain John Schwartz than President Buchanan, who has lost the confidence of his oldest and truest friends, and now trembles when meeting them face to face, after having deserted and then attempted to betray them. In conclusion, he advocated the protection of American industry.

Mr. Grow advocated the Tariff bill, on the ground that its passage was necessary to meet the wants of the Treasury. To be fair, a tariff must have both specific and ad valorem duties; the former to apply wherever articles are nearly of the same kind, the better not only to secure a certain and unfluctuating revenue, but to shield and guard our industrial interests as a secondary consideration.

Messrs Blair and Stevens, of Pennsylvania, (Reps.,) spoke in favor of a protective policy.

Mr. Florence, of Pennsylvania, (Dem.,) became incidentally involved in the debate relative to Pennsylvania politics.

Mr. Maynard, of Tennessee, (Amer.,) gave his views on the tariff.

The Committee rose.

THE DECISION OF THE REFEREE.

SAYERS UNABLE TO FIGHT THIS SUMMER.

Political and General News.

We receive by telegraph from St. Johns, N. F., under the date of Sunday, intelligence of the arrival at that port of the steamship Brazil, which left Galway on the 29th ult.

The screw-steamship City of Washington, Capt. Jeffery, which sailed from Liverpool at 12½ P. M. on the 25th April, and from Queenstown on the following day, arrived here last evening.

By the Bohemian, which left Liverpool and Queenstown simultaneously with the City of Washington, the leading points of the news of the latter have been anticipated.

The Brazil has 526 passengers for New-York, for which port she will leave at midnight.

The Canadian and Kangaroo reached Liverpool on the 26th and 28th.

THE FIGHT FOR THE BELT.

There is nothing new regarding the fight. A medical certificate declares that Sayers' will not be able to use his arm for two months—probably more. £250 had been collected in the House of Commons for the benefit of Sayers.

Bell's Life contains a formal demand from Heenan for the belt, under the assertion that he won it.

Bell's Life treats the claim as preposterous, and asserts that, had the referee witnessed the thirty-seventh round, he would have awarded him the victory.

RESPONSE OF THE REFEREE TO GEORGE WILKES.

From Bell's Life in London.

We have taken some pains to trace out the actual state of the case as to the struggle at the ropes—when we were forced out of our place by the crowd—and also as to the fact of Heenan's having struck the seconds of Sayers after the battle was virtually over, and we are informed by gentlemen of position who were present, and who had an opportunity of seeing, that once, if not twice, while Heenan had Tom on the ropes, the latter got his knees on the ground, and was lifted up again by the Boy, and again held in his vicious grip. If this were the case, and we see not the slightest reason to doubt its truth, it is a fortunate thing for Heenan that the referee was prevented from seeing; for, had he witnessed this act, he must have decided against Heenan. By the rules of the Ring a man on both knees is down, and if interfered with after that event before "time" is called, he is entitled to the money. On the other point we have only the statement of Macdonald to contradict the testimony of some twenty or thirty gentlemen, besides our own reporter, as to Heenan's having struck down and kicked Jemmy Welsh, and knocked Sayers off his second's knee. As to his kicking Brunton, the evidence is not conclusive, but in the case of Welsh and the Champion we have no doubt, especially as we are corroborated by the account in Leslie's Illustrated Paper, alluded to below, which was written by Mr. Wilkes, of Wilkes' Spirit of the Times. That account says, "Heenan, finding that, though Sayers could not, or would not rise from his seat in his corner, and his seconds refused to award him the victory that belonged to him, by throwing up the sponge, he advanced upon him in the midst of his seconds, and struck him where he sat." This admission is tantamount to an acknowledgment of defeat by a foul blow; and yet Mr. Wilkes calls on every impartial Englishman to award the belt to Heenan. Our own opinion of the matter is this: that as the men were fighting in a crowd without any order or regularity, and as Heenan was almost blind, and his noddle was doubtless in a state of considerable confusion, he did not quite know what he was about, and may, therefore, be excused for the unjustifiable act. Nevertheless, had the referee been present, he would have had to do his duty, and no one would more have regretted this than himself * * * That the ring was broken in by the friends of Sayers alone we deny. We are satisfied the police, who had been gradually increasing in number, commenced a pressure from without, and, being aided by certain gentry, who were present for other purposes than sport, and whose object was to stock their jewelers' shops from the pockets of the spectators, the pressure gradually reached its culminating point at or about the time named, when the ring was broken in, spectators and all being gradually forced either into the ring itself or else altogether away from its precincts. As to who cut the ropes—if they were cut—we cannot say; but this we do say, if it be true that the life of Sayers was in danger, and if he had touched the ground with his knees, it was a perfectly justifiable act. Hugging is not fighting, and though there is no written rule upon the subject, a man should be released when it comes to such a near thing as it is stated to have been on Tuesday. * * * We deny strenuously that Heenan, in any way, gained a right to the belt. The determination on the part of the referee not to allow a second meeting during the week is strictly in accordance with the general custom in this country, where men are so injured as were both these gallant fellows on Tuesday. The last instance on record of a postponement was the match between Aaron Jones and Sayers, in which the former was allowed a month, on producing a medical certificate that he would require that time to get over an injury to his hand somewhat similar to that incurred by Heenan. Mr. Wilkes apparently would impute that the referee has departed from the usual practice on this occasion, and says that Heenan does not require any consideration on the ground of humanity. In reply, all we have to say is, the referee is the proper person to judge in this matter, and has had considerably more experience in such matters than Mr. Wilkes himself. Had he ordered a second meeting this week, he would have ordered it the same day, supposing a fitting ground could have been got, and as, by that time, Heenan would have been quite blind, we leave the public to decide who would have had the advantage. Had he postponed it till the following or any succeeding day in the week, his conduct would have received universal execration in all countries where "humanity" at all enters into public consideration.

TOM SAYERS ON LONDON 'CHANGE.

From the London Observer, April 23.

The neighborhood of the Stock Exchange on Saturday presented an unusual appearance of activity; crowds of persons were assembled in all the thoroughfares leading to this place of business, anxious to witness the arrival of the Champion of England, who, it was announced, would be received by the members of the Stock Exchange, to be presented with a purse of 100 guineas, which had been subscribed for him as a mark of approbation by its members of the great courage which he had displayed in the recent pugilistic contest. The hour stated for the arrival of the Champion was 2 o'clock, but Sayers made his appearance at a quarter to 12; but although two hours earlier than the hour appointed there were large numbers of persons present. Tom Sayers, with one of his backers, Mr. Bennett, was introduced to the Stock Exchange by one of its most active members. Immediately on his entering the room all business was suspended; the brokers now left their desks and crowded around their now celebrated visitor, anxious to catch a glimpse of the man who has been the subject of conversation for the last four days in every part of the Kingdom. Tom was somewhat taken aback by the extraordinary reception given to him, and, as he was conducted round the room, was evidently much surprised at its warmth. After having made the tour of the room, Sayers was mounted on a table in the French market, and gracefully acknowledged the repeated cheers of the members, and, in a few homely, earnest words, thanked those present for the kindness they had displayed towards him. He seemed even affected by the extraordinary scene before him, and his appearance showed no signs worth mentioning of that tremendous castigation which he was stated to have experienced; and but for having his arm in a sling, there was nothing whatever to indicate that he was disabled. One of the members of the Stock Exchange expressed his surprise that he should be looking so well after the 20 knock-down blows he was said to have received, and to this Sayers replied that it was a bit of a wonder to himself, but he said he was sorry he had not had ten minutes more with his opponent. The "house" was unusually crowded on the occasion, and Sir Robert Carden and most of the principal members were present. On leaving the Stock Exchange, Sayers was accompanied to the cab by one of the members of the Exchange most active in getting up the subscription, and a bag containing 100 guineas was handed to him.

GOSSIP ABOUT THE COMBATANTS.

Correspondence of the Belfast News Letter.

London, Saturday, April 21, 1860.

The account in the Times was written by Mr. Woods, whose graphic description of the Great Eastern in the storm of the 25th of October last was admitted to be one of the finest efforts of journalism on record. Mr. Woods is an Irishman, and was formerly connected with the Morning Herald. He was the correspondent of that paper in the Crimea, and his account of the battle of Inkermann was admitted to be the best that appeared of that heroic struggle. The Manchester Guardian account of the fight was written by Mr. Tom Taylor, the Secretary to the Board of Health, dramatist and art critic of the Times. Pugilism being a dramatic, and, at the same time, an artistic pursuit, Mr. Taylor was, of course, at home taking notes in the ring. As Mr. Moncton Milnes sits for Pontefract, the borough which Mr. Gully, the celebrated prize-fighter, once represented, the honorable gentleman no doubt thought it incumbent upon him to put in an appearance at the "mill." The letter, which appears in the Times of yesterday, signed by Mr. Wilkes, on behalf of Heenan, repudiating the allegation of the umpire, that it was at the request of the American party that he ordered the men to leave off, was written at the Times office. The American champion and two of his friends went to the Times office to see the editor and explain their version of the affair. They were at Printing-house-square two hours, and the mob became so tumultuous in their demonstrations to get a peep at the transatlantic gladiator, that he had to be let out the back way, from which he hurried into Ludgate-hill and got into a cab. Putting aside, of course, the brutality attaching to prize-fighting as altogether indefensible, it must, nevertheless, be admitted that it was a gallant thing for Heenan to cross the Atlantic to fight the champion of England (who had defeated every adversary out one) on his own soil. The general impression here is that the men will have another meeting, and the whole affair will be managed so quietly that the general public will know nothing about it until it is all over.

From the London Era, April 21.

On Thursday evening Heenan went to the Times office personally, to contradict the statement that he was anxious for a draw. We are informed that he had an interview with the editor.

AUTOGRAPH LETTER OF FRANCIS JOSEPH TO GEN. BENEDEK.

The Wiener Zeitung contains the following imperial autograph letter:

Dear Feldzeugmeister Chevalier von Benedek: Having, at his request, provisionally removed his Imperial Highness the Archduke Albrecht, General of Cavalry, from his posts of Governor-General and Commanding-General in my kingdom of Hungary, and also from the command of the third army, I intrust to you for the present (bis auf Weiteres) the direction of the political administration of Hungary and of the troops stationed in that kingdom (des Landes-General-Commando), and I find good to ordain that the now existing Stadtholderate divisions shall form but one Stadtholdrate, which shall have its seat in Buda, and be immediately subject to you (Ihnen unmittelbar unterstehen.)

For the time being superior political employés, with the necessary assistants, are to be left in Cashua, Presburg, Oedenburg, and Grosswardein, in order that they, without forming an intermediate Instanz (court) may assist in directing and watching over (überwachen) the working of the new organization, and more particularly that part of it which relates to the administration of the counties (Comitats-Verwaltungen) and of the communes.

As soon as the new organization of the Stadtholderate has been completed, "County Administrations" for the management of political matters will be established on the principle of the former County Assemblies (Comitats Congregationen.) and committees, but with combinations (Zuzam mensetzungen,) and spheres of action, which are in accordance with the present state of things.

In accordance with these dispositions, I ordain that when the municipal laws and county administrations are in activity, a proposition (antraege) respecting a Diet shall be prepared, (vorbereitet,) in order that the principle of self-government, by means of town, district or county communes, (gemeinden,) and of Diets and Committees of the same (Landtags-Ausschusse)—which principle is to be introduced into all the provinces of the empire—may also be in force in my Kingdom of Hungary.

The nearer instructions in respect to the carrying out of the above-mentioned measures will be given you by the Ministers to whose Departments such matters belong. FRANCIS JOSEPH.

Russia and Switzerland.

REPLY OF PRINCE GORTSCHAKOFF TO THE SWISS CIRCULAR.

The following is the text of the dispatch of the Russian Government in reply to the Swiss circular of the 19th of March:

To Baron de Nicolai.

St. Petersburgh, March 26, 1860.

Mons. le Baron: I have received the note which, under date of the 19th of March, the President of the Swiss Confederation has forwarded to the Imperial Cabinet, as well as to the other great Powers, on the occasion of the territorial arrangement which has just taken place between Sardinia and France. In that note M. Frey Herasee expresses the apprehensions which the passage of Savoy under French rule causes to the Federal Council, as also the desires he forms that this new state of things may not be prejudicial to the safety of the Helvetic Territory and to the material interests of its populations in either respect; the President of the Confederation in the name of his country invokes the support of the Powers that guaranteed in 1815 the perpetual neutrality of Switzerland.

The Imperial Cabinet has taken cognizance of that communication with all the interest which it deserves, and it does not think that it can better reply to it than by the assurance that it shares the views taken by the Powers that signed the Act of Nov. 20, 1815, who recognized authentically that the neutrality and the inviolability of Switzerland, and its independence from all foreign influence, are in the real interests of the policy of the whole of Europe.

The French Government having, on its part, announced the intention of entering into negotiations on this subject of common interest with the guaranteeing Powers, as also with the Helvetic Confederation itself, and the Federal Council having expressed the same desire, the Imperial Cabinet does not hesitate, on its part, to give its assent thereunto. It flatters itself in the belief that the Federal Council will not doubt the solicitude of the Russian Government to secure efficaciously the neutrality of the Helvetic territory.

I request to speak, in the sense of this dispatch, to the President of this Confederation.

I am, &c., GORTSCHAKOFF.

The Mortara Case.

The Opinione, of Turin, publishes the demand of the public prosecutor at the Court of First Instance at Bologna, in the case of the child Mortara. The following is the conclusion:—"Considering the violent invasion of the public officers into the house of the two Israelites, Momolo and Marianne Mortara, on June 23, 1858, at Bologna, for the purpose of taking away their young child Edward, under the pretext that he was baptized; considering that the child, by means of the public force, was immediately transported to Rome, where he was shut up and sequestered in the College of the Catechumens; we demand that the Father Pierro Gaetano Feletti should be judged in virtue of the Arts. 440 and 444 of the Code of Procedure, and condemned by the Arts. 133 and 200 of the Penal Code of Sept. 20, 1832, (Art. 133. One year to three years' hard labor; Art. 200. One year to three years' imprisonment,) against magistrates who have abused their office, and against any one who arbitrarily arrests and imprisons any individual, and to the payment of damages and interest to the parents of the child as well as costs."

The Great Eastern.

A dispatch dated at Southampton, April 24, says:

"Captain John Vine Hall, who was yesterday appointed by the directors to the command of the Great Eastern, in the place of the lamented Captain Harrison, will enter upon the responsible duties of his office on Wednesday next. The work of fitting out the big ship, and fully equipping her for sea, is progressing rapidly. During the late long and inclement winter very few persons have visited the ship, but as the season opens the number of visitors is now daily on the increase."

Commercial Intelligence.

LIVERPOOL COTTON MARKET.

The Broker's Circular reports the sales of the week at 91,000 bales, including 16,000 to speculators and 16,000 to exporters. The market was buoyant, and the middling and lower qualities had fully recovered last week's decline, while the fair descriptions were firm at unchanged rates. The sales of Friday were 12,000 bales, of which 3,000 were to speculators and exporters, the market closing active and firm at the following authorized quotations:

Fair Orleans	7¼d.	Middling Mobiles...	6½d.
Middling Orleans...	6⅝d.	Fair Uplands.......	7d.

OBITUARY.

Hon. Samuel Beardsley died at his residence in Utica at 12½ o'clock yesterday morning. He was born in Otsego County, and commenced the study of law in Rome, Oneida County, with Hon. Joshua Hathaway, for many years Surrogate, and one of the County Judges. After having been admitted to the Bar, he commenced practice in Rome, where he remained until 1825, when he removed to Utica, and farmed a copartnership with Hon. Greene C. Bronson. For some months he acted as District-Attorney of Oneida County, and in 1827 received the appointment of United States District-Attorney for the Northern District of New-York, which office he held until elected to Congress in 1831. He occupied his seat there until 1836, and on the appointment of his old partner, Greene C. Bronson, to a Justiceshid in the Supreme Court, he was made Attorney-General. He resigned this office to take a seat on the bench of the Supreme Court, and in 1847 was advanced to the Chief Justiceship. Besides these positions, Judge Beardsley occupied that of State Senator in 1823. While in Congress, he was for three terms Chairman of the Committee on the Judiciary. On retiring from public life, he took up his residence in Utica, where he remained until the time of his death, with the exception of a year or two, when he had an office in this City.

The Visit of the Prince of Wales.

TIME OF HIS DEPARTURE FROM ENGLAND—PROBABILITIES OF HIS VISITING NEW-YORK.

By a telegram from the Galway steamer Brazil, at Newfoundland, we learn that the visit of H. R. H. the Prince of Wales, to this Continent, is fixed for the first week in July. He will be attended on his voyage by a half-dozen steamships of the Royal Navy, and that he will land first at St. John's, Newfoundland, which Government has made arrangements to give him a suitable reception, and sail from thence to Halifax, Nova Scotia, where the English North-American fleet, under Admiral Milne, has been ordered to rendezvous to receive him, and after a short stay there, the entire fleet will proceed to Quebec.

He will then visit Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto and Niagara, and it is hoped that he will be induced to proceed from Niagara by railroad to New-York, and the fleet be ordered to join him there, and sail from New-York direct back to England.

When the last steamer left England it was not definitely decided whether the Prince would visit New-York or Washington, but it is hoped he will be induced to do both.

The Common Council, as a reference to the usual report will show, passed through both chambers, last evening, a resolution extending the hospitalities of the City to the young visitor.

EARTHQUAKES AT PORT-AU-PRINCE—DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY.

By the arrival of the Isabel from Port-au-Prince we learn that on the 8th ult., at 5½ A. M., and on the 10th at 10½ P. M., two severe shocks of an earthquake were experienced at that place, and for the three following nights slight shocks were felt. Several buildings fell. Some were slightly and others badly damaged. All the families residing in brick tenements fled to wooden shanties or to their country seats, but the greater portion slept in the streets. Many who were afraid to remain stationary walked the streets all night. The citizens formed a procession and paraded through the place, saying prayers as they went. Since then no shocks had been felt.

The brig Bird of the Wave, Capt. Ropes, reports that two severe shocks of earthquake were felt Inagua, April 8. No damage was done.

THE OVERLAND MAIL.

A Daily Mail for California and Oregon Overland—A Letter from Californians in New-York to Senator Gwin.

Hon. Wm. M. Gwin, Senator from California in Washington:

Sir—Those of your constituents from the Golden State whom business or pleasure has brought to the Atlantic coast, are watching the progress of Congressional legislation upon a new mail system to the Pacific with an amount of anxiety and interest which appears singular to residents on this side. The present time—when the ocean mail contracts via Panama are drawing to a close, and the Government will be free to enter into new engagements; when our postal affairs have engaged the attention of both Houses of the Legislature, and men of all shades of political opinion—is the seldom-occurring now which ought to be seized to obtain a thorough revision of the Pacific postal service, and the inauguration of a plan in which the public interest only should be consulted, and all considerations of personal preference, political scheming, and sectional prejudice, utterly ignored. With the view of urging this important subject upon your attention—upon your immediate attention—and of soliciting your earnest aid in procuring for our State a Daily Overland Mail, we, a Committee of Californians, temporarily in New-York, are requested to address you.

Time presses. In July, the Ocean Postal contracts expire, and immediate legislation is necessary to direct the future action of the Postmaster-General. Shall the Ocean service, in conjunction with the piecemeal Overland service now in operation, be continued, or shall the Ocean service be abolished and the Overland service thoroughly reorganized, are questions of grave moment, and which peremptorily demand definite answers. After a somewhat laborious, and we think impartial investigation of the subject, we have concluded that the public policy, the interests of the business community generally, and the welfare of California especially, will be the best promoted by abolishing the fortnightly Ocean Mail service via Panama entirely; by abrogating (with the consent of, or upon compensation to, the contractors,) of all the present Overland Mail services, and the organization of a Daily Overland Mail from the Atlantic to the Pacific, divided between the Northern Midland and Southern routes.

The reasons why we thus conclude are the following:

1. The mails can be transmitted in less time and more frequently than at present.
2. The total cost per annum for this quicker and more frequent service will be less than now.
3. A larger extent of intermediate country, fast settling up, will be accommodated with postal service than now.
4. The service will be performed where it ought to be performed—entirely upon American soil.
5. The telegraph line can be protected and repaired through a wilderness, if a daily mail runs by its side.
6. The Railroad will be more effectively pioneered.

These are reasons the full force of which those only feel whose home is California. Any one of them would be sufficient to authorize a change in our present system; taken together, and especially if contrasted with those which may be urged to continue that system, they are practically irresistible.

We are aware that you have given great attention to this subject within the last few weeks. On the 20th March you reported your first bill for a semi-weekly service over the middle route, a daily service from Sacramento, California, to Portland, Oregon, and a partial ocean service via Panama. On the 23d March you introduced your second bill for a general weekly mail on the northern route, and a tri-weekly mail across the middle route for letters only, but making no provision for the conveyance of printed matter, or for the accommodation of the southern section of the country. On the 10th April you reported your third bill, which drops the northern route and adds to the service of the middle route the conveyance of printed matter.

It is not easy for us to discover what your real desires or views are from this quick succession of bills We do not propose to analyze them. The impression their perusal leaves upon our minds is this: they do not embrace the subject—they are not comprehensive or adequate—they do not offer a system, but are patches to be tacked on to the present patchwork and that, finally, they all tend to dissatisfy a section of the country, and to force the bulk of the service into the hands of the steamship companies—in fact, to leave the whole matter substantially as it is at present.

Statesmen of the present day are too apt to yield or modify measures of essential public value to the pressure of private importunity, and a censorious public is too apt to attribute such action to improper favoritism. In California, your enemies have asserted that you have shown hitherto an undue leaning towards the steamship companies.

In truth, the Pacific Mail Steamship Company's service is worthy of much consideration. It has been, and continues to be, a noble enterprise, fitly conducted; and any legislator may well think carefully before he acts to the prejudice of a company, so closely identified with our prosperity. But that company is no longer in its infancy. It is entirely independent of Government support or patronage. Its passenger and commercial traffic are immensely remunerative. The danger now is, that it will in the course of events grow too powerful, and become the dictator, absolutely, of the passenger transit to and from California. Already its wealth deters competition upon the waters traversed by its ships. It would be well, therefore, that your action should be such as to show our citizens that you have no desire to employ the steamship companies in the least to the detriment of the interests of our State.

In addition to your own three bills, there have been also within the last few weeks three others introduced to provide for an overland mail service to the Pacific; one by Mr. Covode, in the House, a second by Senator Hale, of New-Hampshire, and a third by Senator Green, of Missouri. Of these the only one which presents the outlines of a thorough, well-balanced system, is that of the Senator from New-Hampshire.

MR. HALE'S BILL

Provides for a tri-weekly mail from St. Louis, Mo., to San Francisco, Cal., by a middle route, to be selected by the contractors, who are also to supply Denver City (the Pike's Peak region) and Salt Lake. Time, twenty days; compensation, $600,000 per annum. It provides also for a second tri-weekly mail by a southern route (on days alternating with the first route) from New-Orleans via Galveston, El Paso and Fort Yuma to San Francisco. Time, twenty days; compensation, $600,000 per annum. It further provides for a weekly mail on the Northern route, starting from St. Paul, Minn., and the head of Lake Superior, through the valley of the Upper Missouri to the Dalles in Oregon. Time, twenty days in Summer and thirty days in Winter; compensation, $200,000 per annum. And lastly, it provides for a daily mail from Sacramento, Cal., through the valleys of the Sacramento and Willamette, to Portland, Oregon. Time, seven days in Summer and fourteen in Winter; compensation, $100,000 per annum.

Over these various routes the entire United States mail is to be carried. Each section of country, from the extreme North to the extreme South, is accommodated, and the ocean service via a foreign country is altogether dispensed with. Seven Atlantic and Pacific trips per week each way are made, viz: three over the Southern, three over the midland, and one over the Northern route; and a daily communication between California and Oregon, supplying the intermediate country, is established. These services are to be performed by the present contractors, (where such exist,) who run lines over these routes, or portions of them. So far as they are concerned, it merely modifies their present contracts. The contractors over one of the present overland routes (Butterfield & Co.) are deprived of one-half their present contract, but compensation is provided for their loss.*

We do not propose to enter into the details of Mr. Hale's bill—some of which may require alteration—we merely quote its general plan, express our hearty approval of it, and urge upon our representatives to coöperate warmly and immediately, dispensing with political and personal preferences, in procuring the passage of an act which will give the authority of law to the most liberal and perfect measure of intercommunion between the Atlantic and Pacific States which has yet been offered to California by Congress.

* The compensation offered in Hale's bill is $100 000, which is insufficient. From the best data procurable by the Committee, they think $300,000 would be a fair sum to award the Butterfield Company as damages for the alteration in their contract.

We especially and respectfully urge upon you, Sir, as our senior representative, that time presses. The temper of Congress, and a happy juncture of circumstances make the iron of opportunity hot. We pray you strike. It may be long before so auspicious a chance offers again.

THE COST OF THE CHANGE.

The cost of the Pacific Postal service in 1859* was, per annum	$2,184,697
To which must be added (for this comparison) the cost of the Ocean service from San Francisco to Olympia, which Hale's & Gwin's bills both render unnecessary by the daily mail between California and Oregon	122,500
Total	$2,307,197
This sum, the competition of Vanderbilt, in 1859, (now withdrawn,) reduces up to July 1, 1860 .... $387,197
And the non-performance of the Tehuantepec contractors further reduces $250,000	637,197
Leaving as the cost of the Pacific Mail service, from July, 1859, to July, 1860, the sum of	$1,750,000

(One million seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars.)

VANDERBILT'S competition with the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, which reduced this cost $387,000 per annum for the current year, is now ended; and it is fair to suppose that at least $150,000 per annum additional will be demanded for the next year by the Consolidated Steamship Companies.

The lowest sum, therefore, at which the anticipated cost of the Pacific Postal Service for the year 1860–1 can be estimated, upon the present plan of operations, is one million nine hundred thousand dollars ($1,900,000.)

The entire Mail Service by three overland routes, proposed by Mr. HALE's bill, will cost as follows:

Weekly, on the Northern Route, Minnesota to Oregon, (20 days)	$200,000
Tri-Weekly, on the Middle Route, St. Louis to San Francisco, (20 days)	600,000
Tri-Weekly, on the Southern Route, New-Orleans to San Francisco, (20 days)	600,000
Daily, on the California and Oregon Route, Sacramento to Portland, (7 days)	100 000
Total	$1,500,000

Total cost of this entire Pacific Mail Service overland per annum will be one million five hundred thousand dollars. Contractors have given written stipulations to perform the service at these rates. There will, therefore, be a positive money-saving of four hundred thousand dollars per annum, by adopting the Overland Routes exclusively.

WHAT WE RECEIVE FOR OUR MONEY.

By the present system, for $1,750,000 this year, and probably $1,900 000 next year, we in California and Oregon receive—what? Twice a month our mails from the East, in 23 days, viâ Panama; twice a week our mails from the East, overland by the Butterfield route from St. Louis to San Francisco, viâ Texas and New-Mexico, (which is eleven hundred miles longer than the direct route taken by the pony express,) in 25 days; and the following patchwork mails, viz.: One weekly from San Antonio, Texas, to San Diego, Cal.; ONE MONTHLY (!!) from Kansas, Mo., to Stockton, Cal.; one weekly from St. Joseph, Mo., to Placerville, Cal., in 30 days; and one from San Francisco to Oregon, by sea, twice monthly.

It is impossible to take a map, and trace these mail services from point to point, without being impressed with the idea that their designers have been adepts in the science of "How not to do it." In brief, the actual services to be expected, under the present system, for $1,900,000 next year, are: A mail twice a month, by Panama, in 23 days; and twice a week by the semi-circular Butterfield route, (over which the space between St. Louis and San Francisco is spun out from 1,900 to 3,000 miles,) in 25 days; together with the incidental patchwork above named, which is of very local and trifling import.

Under HALE's bill for $1,500,000, what shall we Californians obtain?

1. A daily mail either from St. Louis or New-Orleans in twenty days.

2. A weekly mail over the northern route, supplying the whole line of northern military posts and settlements, from Lake Superior to Puget's Sound.

3. Oregon and California united daily, instead of twice monthly.

4. The patchwork service supplied three times a week, instead of monthly or weekly as at present.

In time, money and convenience, the plan proposed by HALE's bill is so far superior to the present straggling, slow and costly postal *de*rangement, as to prevent a comparison between the two. We are perfectly convinced that a bare statement of the present and the proposed systems, in parallel columns, offered to the people of California, would carry the State as a unit in favor of the thorough overland service.

SUGGESTIONS.

We take leave to offer a few suggestions for your consideration as improvements to Mr. HALE's bill, chiefly as to the midland route from San Francisco to St. Louis. This is the most important of the three for the simple and sufficient reasons that it is the shortest in miles and the most central in location. It will command the bulk of the business. Twenty days from St. Louis to San Francisco (the schedule time in Mr. HALE's bill) is too long. The total distance is about 1,900 miles, of which 400 can be traversed by railroad and steamboat. "The Pony Express" accomplishes this distance in 10 or 11 days. At the rate of travel established on the Butterfield Overland Route it would be accomplished in less than 15 days. At an average of 4½ miles an hour, it would be accomplished in less than 18 days, But the contractors are afraid to bind themselves to a shorter time than 20 days. Our suggestion is to pay them by the trip, on a scale of prices depending upon TIME. The bill requires of them 156 trips each way annually, or 312 trips in all, for which they are to receive $600,000, or about $2,000 per trip. Give them that amount for a trip performed in 18 days, with an addition of $100 per day for each day less than that time, and a deduction of $100 per day for each day over that time. This would pay them $2,200 per trip, for instance, if made in 16 days, but only $1,800 per trip if made in 20 days.

Leave the contractors on all the lines free for twelve months to choose their own main routes. They will find the shortest and the best. By that time let them report their route to the Department, and not alter it without permission. Permit them to supply places off their main route by branch mails.

Make a fair division of the printed matter, which is 90 per cent. in weight of the United States mails, between the routes. The weight of printed matter forwarded by mail to the Pacific is said to exceed 1,200 pounds per day. If this were crowded upon either route alone it would break it down. It would be well to place an extra rate upon printed matter other than folded and addressed newspapers and Congressional Documents, so as to force magazines, illustrated newspapers and books generally, (which are merely merchandise printed for private gain,) into the channels of transportation used by other merchandise. It is difficult to see why the Government should transport private printed matter, designed to amuse or instruct the public, for next to nothing; any more than that it should pay for the conveyance of theatrical performers or school-masters who travel for the same purpose.

If possible, do something for "The Pony Express" as a public benefit. Whether that gallant little enterprise, which more than any other has ingratiated itself into the cordial regard of Californians, be self-sustaining and profitable, or otherwise, it deserves Government encouragement. It has brought the Pacific within ten days of the Atlantic, across the width of the 36th parallel of latitude. For Government purposes alone, this abbreviation of time may be invaluable. Suppose in an emergency the Pony Express were to refuse to carry a National dispatch, and that a matter of urgent moment had to travel by the regular mail! The Government will be compelled to give the Pony Express a standing retainer in some shape. The swiftest transit is one of those facts, "the inexorable logic" of which compels Government recognition.

We might recapitulate many considerations pregnant with truth and necessity, founded upon public policy, upon political economy, upon the wisdom of opening up a continent—of making highways through the desert, of promoting mercantile convenience, of giving safety in time of war, and quick communication in time of peace, and of becoming independent of transit over foreign waters and through a foreign soil. But we simply again recite the six reasons with which we set out. By the proposed change the mails can be transmitted in less time and more frequently than at present; the yearly cost of this quicker and more frequent transportation will be less; a larger extent of country will be accommodated; the routes of the Pacific mails will be entirely on American soil; a telegraph line can be protected, repaired, and, therefore, maintained alongside a daily mail route; and the railroad will be more effectively pioneered.

We are led to believe that with the warm coöperation of the representatives of California in Congress, this system can be matured and become a law at once. Amidst the strife of politicians contending for an empty mastery, the coils of political schemes, the recoil of political antipathies, and the incessant clamor of private speculators, this great measure may be lost to us. Duty lifts her clear voice pleading for the public good, and asks of the servants of the people that with a single purpose they pursue the straight course she places before them in the matter. Your constituents grow weary with the unmeaning smoke and ceaseless bubble of the central political cauldron—with the babbling North and the angry South—with Democrat, Republican, Administration, and Opposition; and they ask substantial service and quiet painstaking attention to the plain affairs of the country from those who sit in its councils—no matter from what section they come, or what opinions they profess. What have party politics or sectional prejudices to do with the conveyance and distribution of our letters and newspapers? We believe we represent the universal desire of California, and again urge upon you and your colleagues hearty and immediate coöperation in the passage of a law providing for a Daily Mail Overland to the Pacific.

We are, honorable Sir, your obedient servants and constituents,

GEORGE GORDON,
THEODORE PAYNE, } Committee.

PACIFIC MAILS.

On taking charge of this Department I found established, and in full operation, six different routes for conveying the mails to and from California and our other Pacific possessions, viz.:

	Annual Cost.
1. From New-York and New-Orleans, viâ Panama, to San Francisco, semi-monthly	$738,250
2. From New-Orleans to San Francisco, viâ Tehuantepec, semi-monthly	250,000
3. From San Antonio, viâ El Paso, to San Diego, semi-monthly, (weekly from San Antonio to El Paso and Fort Yuma)	196,448
4. From St. Louis and Memphis, viâ El Paso, to San Francisco	600,000
5. From Kansas, Mo., to Stockton, Cal., monthly	79,999
6. From St Joseph's Mo., viâ Utah City, to Placerville, monthly	320,000
Total	$2,184,697

LAW REPORTS.

The Cosgrove Murder.

The People vs. Barney Cole.—This was an application to Justice LEONARD, at Chambers, by A. A. Phillips, Esq., on behalf of the prisoner, to have him admitted to bail.

Cole is under indictment jointly with two others for the murder of Patrick Cosgrove, as will be well remembered.

Papers submitted without argument, and decision reserved.

Death of George Griffin.

ADJOURNMENT OF THE COURTS.

In Part I. of the Trial Term of the Superior Court, A. R. Dyett, Esq., yesterday announced the death of that venerated member of the New-York Bar, George Griffin, Esq., and, after making a few eulogistic remarks of the usual character on such occasions, moved that the Court adjourn. The motion was seconded by Theo. Stuyvesant, Esq. Justice HOFFMAN then remarked that he had had the pleasure of a long and familiar acquaintance with Mr. Griffin, and that he was, both in professional and private life, a gentleman of the highest and purest character. In accordance with the wishes of the Bar, the Court was then adjourned.

In Part II. of the same Court, Wm. H. Bell, Esq., announced the death of Mr. Griffin—remarking that he had known him for many years, and that he had learned to respect and venerate him for his many virtues, and the noble qualities of his nature. The motion was seconded, and thereupon Justice WOODRUFF made some brief remarks, of a similar nature with those of Justice Hoffman, and adjourned the Court.

Two Suits for Slander—Singular Contrast of Verdicts.

Charles Reeves vs. Edward Hogan.—This was an action against the defendant for damages alleged to have been sustained by the plaintiff, by reason of certain language claimed to have been used by defendant in public, concerning plaintiff's character. The parties both have stands in Washington Market, and have for some time been at variance. The plaintiff charged that defendant publicly stated of him that he was a thieving son of a ——, and had robbed two or three men, and he (defendant) could prove it. The defendant denied that he had used such language concerning the plaintiff, but the jury were satisfied to the contrary, and gave a verdict for the plaintiff for $50 and costs.

In charging the jury, the Court stated that in certain cases actions for slander should receive favorable consideration by juries, inasmuch as it had become too common for the tongue of slander to defame a neighbor without cause. The action was tried before Judge HILTON in the Common Pleas.

Tomlinson & Bogham for plaintiff; Phillips & Davis for defendant.

Louis H. Dickerson vs. George Harriot.—The plaintiff, in this action, is now a Philadelphia lawyer, but was formerly of this City. The defendant is a practicing member of the New-York Bar. It was alleged by the plaintiff that the defendant, in the presence of divers persons, upon two occasions, called him, plaintiff, "a thief, a robber, and a swindler;" charged him with "swindling everybody he had anything to do with," and also stated that the plaintiff was "a bastard, and did not know who his father was."

The answer denied all the allegations of the complaint.

On the trial Joseph R. Dickerson, of this City, also a lawyer, and a brother of the plaintiff, and the plaintiff himself, both testified positively that the words were spoken, and the defendant and another witness, J. N. Haggerty, testified as positively that they were not spoken.

The case was tried in the Common Pleas, before Judge DALY, who charged the Jury that the duty devolved upon them to determine the fact, whether or not the words were spoken, and by their verdict to reprove the conduct of the professional gentleman whose interests were involved. If the words were spoken, then the plaintiff should obtain such a verdict as would at once be a legal satisfaction—if not a personal one—and deter other professional gentlemen from such vile practices.

The Jury retired, and in five minutes returned with a verdict for the plaintiff for six cents.

The E. A. Johnson Murders—Hicks to be Tried Here.

UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT—MAY 7.

Judge NELSON arrived in town from Washington on Saturday, and this morning took his seat on the bench with Judge SMALLEY, when the case of Hicks, indicted for murder and for robbery on board the sloop E. A. Johnson, was brought up on the plea to the jurisdiction of the Court interposed by his counsel. A statement of the facts, which raised the point, had been agreed upon between his counsel and the District-Attorney, which was read as follows:

"Statement of facts agreed to by the Government and the defendant to be submitted to the Jury impanneled to pass upon the issue raised by the defendant's plea to the jurisdiction, and the replication of the Government.

The defendant first came ashore at Fort Richmond, Staten Island, within the jurisdiction of the Southern District of New-York, about 6 o'clock, A. M., on Wednesday, March 21, 1860. On the same morning, about 10 o'clock, the sloop E. A. Johnson was brought from the high seas to the City of New-York in a damaged condition, with blood on the deck and in the cabin, and no person on board.

The defendant passed up Staten Island, on which he was seen by a number of persons, residents of said district, as far as Vanderbilt Landing, and there took the ferry boat for New-York City, on which he was seen, and arrived at New-York, where he remained during the whole of Wednesday. He left voluntarily with his family and effects on a steamboat running on Long Island Sound to Fall River, in the State of Massachusetts. After landing at Fall River he left for Providence, Rhode Island.

Mr. Nevins, a police officer, and Mr. Smith a police reporter, traced Hicks to Providence, R. I., and on the night of Friday, March 23, or morning of Saturday, March 24, found him in bed at a house in Providence. They told him they wanted to see him about that counterfeit money. He arose and went with them to the Police Station in that city, and was then told the charge of counterfeiting was bogus. They then told him he was arrested for the murder of the crew of the E. A. Johnson.

The defendant was confined that night and the next morning he was asked by Nevins and Smith if he would go to New-York voluntarily. The defendant said he would go, and signed a paper to that effect.

The three then came to New-York, and the defendant was confined in the Second Ward Station-house until the Monday following. On that day defendant was taken by Nevins in handcuffs to the United States Marshal's office in New-York. Affidavits were that day taken by Commissioner White, who issued a warrant for the arrest of defendant, charging him with the crime of murder of George H. Burr. The prisoner was arrested on the warrant by the Marshal in his office.

On Wednesday, the 28th March, the defendant was arrested on a warrant charging him with the robbery of George H. Burr on the high seas, and the examination of the two offences proceeded together. The defendant was committed for trial for both offences on Thursday, March 29.

The bill of indictment was filled April 13, 1860.

No other legal process for the arrest of defendant was ever issued. Nevins and Smith had no warrant to arrest the defendant at Providence."

Mr. Graves, one of the prisoner's counsel argued the question, claiming that as the statute required the trial to take place in the District in which the defendant was first brought, Hicks should be tried in Rhode Island, instead of in this City.

The Court having listened to him without argument in opposition from the District-Attorney, overruled the plea to the jurisdiction, deciding in accordance with decisions in other Districts, that this was the proper District for the trial to take place in.

The prisoner was then arraigned on the indictment for murder, and pleaded "Not Guilty." The trial will probably take place next week.

The Case of Jeremiah Towle.

Having published the ruling of the Court in the case of the United States vs. Mr. Towle, it is but fair that we give the certificate of the jury before whom the case was tried, composed, as it was, of some of our most respectable and intelligent citizens.

DISTRICT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES.

The United States vs. Jeremiah Towle.—We, the undersigned, jurors impanneled to try the above entitled cause, do hereby certify that from the testimony produced before us on the trial of said action, the following facts were established and proved, viz.: that the defendant audited the bills and kept the accounts of the Superintendent of Lighthouses and Marine Hospitals; and that he rendered to the Treasury Department his Quarterly and Annual Accounts of official receipts and expenditures as Naval Officer, with the proper vouchers, in accordance with his instructions from the Comptroller and the usage of the department; that his vouchers are correct, and that he closed his final accounts on the 2d of June 1845, and deposited the balance of the public money in his hands to the credit of the United States; and that under such instructions his accounts should have been settled and closed by the accounting officers of the department for each separate period of such accounting.

The Jury further certify that it was further proved before them on such trial that the defendant on the 20th of February, 1845, advanced for the United States the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars to redeem certain valuable French books which were presented by the French Chamber of Deputies to the Congress of the United States, and that the plaintiffs are justly indebted to him for that amount with interest.

The Jury further certify that it was proved before them on the said trial, that the defendant performed the responsible duties of Commissioner under the act of the 7th of July 1838, entitled "An Act to remit the duties upon certain goods destroyed by fire at the late conflagration in the City of New-York," from the 19th of April 1843, to the 2d of June 1845, in taking testimony and estimating the duties on the said goods; and for which public service he is justly entitled to a fair compensation, with his costs and damages for the expense and trouble of this action.

MONDAY, May 7—P. M.

The Weekly Averages of the Banks of the City of New-York on Saturday, May 5, 1860, present in the aggregate the following changes from the previous exhibit of April 28:

Increase in Loans	$393,853
Increase in Specie	535,937
Increase in Circulation	642,813
Increase in Undrawn Deposits	143,892

Including the Clearing-house operations of the week, which show the inter-exchanges between the Banks, and including, also, the Sub-Treasury statement of Saturday, the following is the general comparison with the previous exhibit, and also with the movement this time last season:

	May 7, 1859.	May 5, 1860.	April 28, 1860.
Capital	$68,324,000	$69,433,000	$69,433,000
Loans	120,519,905	127,479,520	127,085,667
Specie	26,086,632	23,815,746	23,279,809
Circulation	8,804,697	9,391,861	8,749,048
Gross Deposits	115,586,810	108,585,420	106,540,057
Exchanged	26,714,767	26,546,095	24,724,624
Undrawn	88,872,043	81,959,325	81,815,433
In Sub-Treasury	6,481,913	7,049,143	7,568,723

The present Bank return shows a moderate increase in all the items, but probably on a declining average. The Loans and Discounts paid off on the 4th of May at the close of the past week, and the shipment of Gold on Saturday, will tell on the succeeding return. The increase now shown in circulation is an incident to quarter day, and will be but temporary. The statement, altogether, is not very different from the general indications of the Bank movement up to near the close of the week. The market for money to-day is the same in rates and demand as before. The Discount Brokers complain of the scarcity of choice lists of mercantile paper, while the Stock Brokers are employing a fair amount of Money on temporary loan The Foreign Exchanges open steady for the Cunarder sailing direct on Wednesday. The rates are: 60 days on London, 109⅜; Sight, 110¼@110⅜; Paris, f. 5 14⅜@ f. 5 13¾ at 60 days, and f. 5 11¼ at Sight. The demand promises a fair mail for this steamer, while the export of Specie will be moderate, owing to a fractional difference in the freight by the Cunard line. One or two prominent shippers will send by the City of Manchester or New-York on Saturday.

On the Stock Exchange this morning, the English news by the Quebec steamer was favorably construed. The advices of a recovery in the Cotton trade, both at Manchester and Liverpool; of a firm market for Grain; and of easier Discounts in London, are deemed an ample equivalent for the immediate export of Gold from this side. The intimation of deficient supplies of Food in Ireland, and of rather moderate stocks of Grain in England, added to the already active movement into the Grain ports of the West, is certainly a most encouraging sign for our great railway carriers, and the probability is strong in favor of a decided improvement in the market value of their Bonds and Shares, as their Spring and Summer traffic advances once more to the liberal and remunerative scale of 1856.

The advance on the Share list since Saturday is ⅜ ℘ cent., closing firm this afternoon at 79½ for New-York Central, and the Western Stocks in proportion. Rock Island about 67⅜ ℘ cent., Galena 64⅜, Toledo 29¼@⅜, Illinois Central 60, Michigan Guaranteed 24⅜, Harlem Preferred 38¼, Hudson 41⅞, Burlington and Quincy 64½, and Erie 19¼. The movement here in the last-named is made stronger by the London advices, where a steady speculation has been going on for several months, placing the price above the last received sales from New-York. Thus, by the arrival reported this morning, we have 15½ sterling, while the latest then known from this side was about 12½@13 ℘ cent. The Bonds of the Company are also firmer, 85 ℘ cent. paid for the Third Mortgage. State Stocks are steady—83⅜ for Missouris. Panama is less firm on sellers' options, which were offered at 145½ ℘ cent., 30 days, and Pacific Mail quiet. With these exceptions, the market left off strong.

The official statement of the earnings of the Michigan Southern road in April is as follows:

	1859.	1860.
Passengers	$67,922 29	$59,461 81
Freight	68,758 89	105,683 23
Mails	4,435 56	4,310 38
Express and Miscellaneous	4,141 65	24,540 14
Total	$145,258 39	$193,995 56
Increase		$48,737 17

The first report (by telegraph) which put the increase at $30,000, was exclusive of miscellaneous receipts, which are made large by some collections for the rent of dépôt, &c.

The following was to-day's business at the Office of the Assistant Treasurer:

Total receipts	$328,728 77
Payments	528,258 92
Balance	6,849,343 92

Included in the receipts were $103,000 for Customs.

FLOUR AND MEAL—The market has been quiet, to-day, for State and Western Flour. The principal holders have not been disposed to make any concession to buyers. The latter have been claiming a reduction, and not having obtained it, they have purchased sparingly. The reported transactions, since our last, do not exceed 6,800 bbls., including superfine State at $5 45 @$5 50; ordinary to choice extra State at $5 52½@ $5 65; chiefly at $5 55; very inferior to choice at $5 40@$5 50; extra Iowa and Wisconsin at $5 60@$6 30; extra Illinois, Indiana and Michigan at $5 65@$6 40; inferior extra Ohio at $6@$6 15; round-hoop extra Ohio, shipping brands, at $6 20@$6 30 ℘ bbl.

Southern Flour has been in moderate request at rather easier prices. Sales to-day, amount to 1,600 bbls., at $6 30@$6 60 for poor to good superfine Alexandria, Baltimore, &c., and $6 65 @$7 75 for fancy to choice extra brands, ℘ bbl. Canadian is in demand, including inferior to very choice extra, chiefly at $5 65@$7 50 ℘ bbl.; 1,100 bbls. changed hands within the range. Rye Flour is inactive at $3 45@ $4 25 for fine and superfine, ℘ bbl. Corn Meal is dull and heavy at $3 70@$3 80 for Jersey; $4@$4 05 for Brandywine, ℘ bbl.

GRAIN—Wheat has been moderately inquired for, at, however, drooping rates. We have heard of sales of 21,500 bushels, including Milwaukee Club at $1 29 @$1 30—10,000 bushels having been purchased, for export, at the latter price; and prime red Southern at $1 51 ℘ bushel. Corn has been inactive, yet prices have not varied much; sales were reported of only 22,500 bushels, at 78c. @79c. for mixed Western; 81c.@82c. for Yellow Jersey and Southern; and 83c.@85c. for White Jersey and Southern, ℘ bushel. Rye has been in demand, at 85c. ℘ bushel; sales 3,000 bushels. Barley continues quiet, at previous figures. Oats are in more request, including Canada, at 41½c.@42½c.; Western at 41c.@42c.; State at 42c.@43c.; Jersey and Pennsylvania at 39c.@41c.; Southern at 38c.@40c. ℘ bushel. The Albany Evening Journal of the 5th, states upon reliable authority, that there are parties in Canada who hold a large quantity of oats which they intend shipping to England during the Summer months, on speculation. The amount is variously estimated from 250,000 to 400,000 bushels. A letter from Montreal states, that four vessels have been engaged to take them from the St. Lawrence, while another states the freights have been engaged in New York upon much more advantageous terms than could be obtained in Canada. Should they be shipped by the way of New York, they will come by the way of the Northern canal. We have seen the names of the firms engaged in this speculation, but are not permitted to print them. It is well known to most of our grain dealers in this city that a large quantity of oats were in store in Canada, but up to within the past two days it was not known what disposition the owners intended to make of them.

PROVISIONS—Pork has been moderately inquired for, including New Mess at $17 87; Old Mess, $17 40; New Prime at $14 12½@$14 25; and Old Prime at $12 87, ℘ bbl.; sales 450 bbls. Cut Meats find ready buyers, at 9c.@9½c. for Hams, and 7½c.@7½c. for Shoulders, ℘ lb. Bacon is in demand, at full rates. Lard is unchanged; sales, to-day, 475 tcs. and bbls., at 10¾c.@11¼c., ℘ lb. Beef continues in demand: sales 300 bbls., in lots, at $8 50@$10 50 for repacked Western Mess; $11 25@$12 50 for Western Mess; $5@$6 for Country Mess, extra; and $4@$4 62½ for Country Prime, ℘ bbl.; Prime Mess, $14@$18 ℘ tc. Beef Hams, $12@$16 ℘ bbl. Butter is plenty and heavy, at 10c.@20c. for inferior to prime Old and New State, and 10c.@18c. for Ohio, ℘ lb. Cheese is in moderate demand, at 6c.@12½c. ℘ lb.

RICE—Sales, to-day, 250 tcs., in lots, at $3 87@ $4 37 ℘ 100 lbs.

SUGARS—Have been less active, the day's sales having been confined to 750 hhds., chiefly Cuba, at from 6¼c.@$7⅜c., with some Porto Rico at 6¾c.@ 7¼c., and New-Orleans on private terms; also, 227 bags Cuba at $6⅝c., and 500 boxes Havana on private terms.

TALLOW—Sales have been reported of 65,000 lbs., at 10¼c.@10½c. ℘ lb., the latter rate for Butchers' Association, packages extra.

WHISKY—Sales have been reported to-day of 500 bbls., in lots, at 21½c. ℘ gallon.

FREIGHTS—For Liverpool, the engagements included 38,000 bushels Wheat and Corn, in bulk and bags, at 5½d.@5¾d.; 1,000 bbls. Flour, on private terms; 100 tcs. Beef, at 3s. 6d.; also, by steamer, 600 boxes Cheese, at 40s.; 150 tcs. Beef, at 4s. 6d.; 78 hhds. Tallow, at 25s.; 50 hhds. Hams, at 30s.; and 5 tuns of Oil, at 40s. For London, 60 tuns Wood, at 22s. 6d. For Glasgow, 100 tcs. Beef, at 5s.; and 200 bbls. Resin, at 3s.

TO SOUTHERNERS.

DRINKERS OF CONGRESS WATER.

Much spurious Mineral Water is sold as CONGRESS WATER" by unprincipled persons or counterfeiters, who when they dare not use that name, call it "Saratoga" Water; although "Saratoga" is only the name of the town in which the Spring is situated.

To protect the public from such impositions we have ALL our corks branded thus ☞ Any not having those words and letters on the corks, are counterfeit; and the purchaser should prosecute the seller for swindling.

PILLAR OF FIRE.

Handsomely bound in one large 12mo volume of 603 pages, with a gift. Price $1 25.

"This volume is the third of a series of original, sublime and thrilling narratives of Holy Writ, and the wonderful and momentous events which characterize these histories are invested with a charm of solemn and fascinating grandeur, unequaled in their spell—irresistible in their Christianizing influence. The history of David as a Shepherd—Poet—Musician—Warrior—King—Prophet and Friend, and a 'man after God's own heart,' with that of his son Solomon, with the events which attend their triumph of valor, wisdom and prophecy, are given here with a graphic fidelity and religious coloring, which, while it entertains and instructs, cannot fail to awaken the popular mind to the divine truths and wonders of the Bible.

The Throne of David is a connecting link between 'The Pillar of Fire' and 'The Prince of the House of David,' and forms the completion of this interesting and popular series."

Handsomely Illustrated and bound in one large 12mo volume of 603 pages. Price $1 25.

THE GREAT BOOK OF THE AGE.
THE GUILT OF SLAVERY,
AND THE
CRIME OF SLAVEHOLDING,
Demonstrated from the Hebrew and Greek Scriptures,
BY REV. GEO. B. CHEEVER, D. D.

Dr. Cheever has done a vastly important work in demonstrating as he has done, beyond all controversy, that no warrant for Slavery can be found in the Hebrew and Christian Scriptures.—National Anti-Slavery Standard.

It is neither dry nor uninteresting, while it evinces a degree of erudition and statistical lore that will excite admiration and surprise, and is to the Anti-Slavery cause a valuable aid —Evening Post.

It is an admirable and masterly production.—Principia.

It is by far the completest and ablest discussion of the subject we have ever met with. It will be the standard work on this subject among scholars —Free Will Baptist Quarterly.

It is a work of very thorough and substantial scholarship. Let Dr. Cheever be read and studied. Those who have found it impossible to restrain his lion-hearted denunciation of Slavery in his native English, will find it more difficult to dislodge the lion from his thicket of Hebrew roots —Independent.

The subject is discussed in an exhaustive manner, with great originality of illustration and with the characteristic vehemence of the author.—New-York Tribune.

For sale, wholesale and retail, at the office of the American Anti-Slavery Society, No. 5 Beekman-st., New-York, and by the Booksellers generally. Price $1; by mail, $1 25. A liberal discount will be made to the trade.

BUSINESS CHANCES.

PHILADELPHIA
SHOE STUFFS AND TRIMMINGS BUSINESS
FOR SALE.

The stock, good-will and fixtures of an old-established stand doing a large and profitable business, will be sold out on reasonable terms to responsible parties. The present proprietor retiring on account of ill-health. Address, with real name, &c., SHOE TRIMMINGS, Philadelphia Post-office.

FIRST-CLASS STEAM FORGE FOR SALE.—Will be sold at public sale, at 2 P. M., on the 28th day of May, 1860, at the public house of Wm. L. De Borbon, in the City of Reading, the property known as the Reading Steam Forge, in the said city. Said forge is substantially built, and completely equipped with all the modern improvements, including a 7-ton Nasmyth steam hammer and three Kirk steam hammers, each with heating-furnaces and boilers attached. A tire-bending machine and oven; three puddling-furnaces, five blacksmiths' forges, two thirty-ton cranes, one largest class boring mill, slotting machine, turning-lathe, and sixty horse engine. Main building 300x160 feet, with sheet-iron roof; a carpenter shop and brick office, with fire-proof, &c., on the premises, which contain over 2½ acres. Said Forge is most conveniently located for business, adjoining the Reading Railroad, and so connected therewith that locomotives can take away and deliver cars of iron, coal and other freight without cost for hauling. Shutes run outside the building, by which coal, scrap iron, &c., can be dumped close to each furnace, without extra cost for hauling or labor. This Forge is capable of executing the heaviest work, having forged and finished the main shafts of the Adriatic, (believed to be the largest ever made,) besides complete sets of forgings for numerous steamships for Government and other. The city of Reading presents peculiar advantages for the successful operation of such a forge. It is within 58 miles of Philadelphia, connected therewith by the Reading Railroad, and the Schuylkill (160 ton) Canal; 178 miles by rail direct from New-York; 138 from Baltimore; 54 from Harrisburgh and 54 from the Schuylkill coal region, whence the best anthracite coal can be placed at the furnace doors for about $2 25 per ton. Reading is situated in one of the finest agricultural districts of Pennsylvania, has a population of 25,000, and is noted for its general health and the purity of its water. As Berks County contains more furnaces than any other in the United States, iron of every description can be procured by the forge at the lowest prices.

Title clear of all incumbrance. Possession given immediately, and terms made easy, to suit purchasers. The Forge is in complete order, and is furnished with every necessary tool and appurtenance to commence work immediately on taking possession. It is a property well worth the attention of those engaged in the above business. For any further information, apply to
H. H. MUHLENBERG,
Cashier Farmers' Bank, Reading, Pa.

WINES AND LIQUORS.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN.

This celebrated Gin is distilled in London, under inspection of the British Government, and it is delicately flavored with some of the most valuable restoratives of the vegetable kingdom.

It is one of the most delicious beverages extant.

Its flavor is peculiar to itself, and is totally unlike Holland Gin.

It is strongly impregnated with a pure extract of the Italian juniper berry, and is used successfully in cases of GOUT, DEBILITY, DROPSY, DYSPEPSIA, &c., by the most eminent physicians of England and America, from hundreds of whom the proprietors have received the most flattering testimonials.

Sold only in quart and pint bottles, in cases of one and two dozen each, and retailed by all druggists, grocers, fruiterers and country merchants.

TO ADVERTISERS.

The enlargement of the circulation of the Times is at the present moment so rapid as to render it imperative that advertisements intended for the daily issue should be sent in at the earliest possible moment. Announcements which fail to reach the office before nine o'clock P. M., lose all the advantages of classification under the heads to which readers are accustomed to refer. It is, therefore, quite as important to the advertisers as to ourselves, to have that hour the latest for the reception of their notices.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Mr. Anthony yesterday presented to the Senate a remonstrance against any alteration in the patent laws, which should take away from patentees the right of appeal from the decision of the Commissioner. A bill was passed to settle the titles to lands set apart for the half-breeds in Kansas. The resolutions of Mr. Davis, which have already furnished the topic for protracted debate, came up. Mr. Davis himself spoke at length in their support. He alluded to cotton as the great bond of Union between the North and South; said the South demanded protection because it was her right, as well as the duty of the General Government to extend it. He thought Congress had the power to establish governments temporarily in the Territories, and declared it as his opinion that the election of a Republican President would be in itself an overt act, which the South would be perfectly right in considering cause sufficient for a dissolution of the Union. Some remarks of Mr. Davis brought out Mr. Brown, who repudiated any sympathy with Mr. Douglas. By way of demonstrating his sincerity, he offered as a substitute for the second and third of the resolutions, of which he is the author, one declaring it to be the duty of Congress to pass such laws as shall extend to slave-property the same protection which other property enjoys. Mr. Clingman followed Mr. Brown, but before he had concluded, the Senate adjourned. The House passed, without debate, a bill reported by Mr. Burlingame from the Committee on Foreign Affairs, authorizing the appointment of a full Minister to Sardinia, at a salary of $12,000, with a Secretary, at $1,800 per annum. On the motion of Mr. Grow, the debate on Territorial affairs was postponed until Thursday, in order to take up the Tariff bill, that some of the members of the House might set themselves right on that question before leaving for Chicago. It was also resolved to close the debate at 1 o'clock to-day. Messrs. Sherman, Grow, Blair and Stevens spoke at length in favor of the measure. Mr. Schwartz, of Pennsylvania, took occasion during the course of the debate to defend himself from the attacks of the Constitution.

The steamship Brazil, from Galway on the 29th ult., arrived at St. John's on Sunday. Her general news is without importance. The prize-fight had been substantially decided by the referee declaring to Heenan that had the fight not terminated as it did, he should have declared Sayers the victor at the close of the thirty-seventh round. The physicians of Sayers had given their opinion that that champion would not, because of the condition of his arm, be able to renew the contest for two months to come. Further defalcations, though not material in amount, had been discovered among the employes of the Union Bank of London. The visit of the Prince of Wales to America is fixed for the end of July. The steamship City of Washington, which left Liverpool on the 25th ult., and simultaneously with the Bohemian, arrived here last evening. From our foreign files we glean details and extracts of interest.

Our correspondent at the capital of Mexico furnishes details of news from that city to the 18th ult. The principal topic of discussion was the refusal of the Government to escort a specie conducta of $3,000,000 half-way to Vera Cruz for less than $240,000; terms considered inadmissible, as there would be the additional impost to be paid the Liberal Government at the point of shipment. Miramon was reported to be preparing for another campaign in the interior, and gives out his intention to renew his attack upon Vera Cruz next Fall. The exhausted condition of the Treasury would, however, put a check upon these operations. A change of Ministry was talked of; Manuel Escanden taking the Home Department, Francisco Iturbe, the Finances; and Mier y Teran, Internal Improvements. The Brooklyn, Saratoga and Pocahontas are still at Vera Cruz. All on board reported well.

Further accounts of the severe earthquake experienced throughout the island of Hayti, on the 8th and 10th of last month, reach us from Port-au-Prince. Several buildings were thrown down, and many others damaged. The population, for three nights, slept in the open air.

The Federal Judiciary and the Mormons seem to be more at variance than ever, and a recent release on habeas corpus, by Chief Justice Eckels, of five prisoners who had been confined in the penitentiary by authority of a mittimus from the Probate Court for the County of Great Salt Lake, had called down upon him the most violent abuse from the Mountaineer, the organ of the Saints. It was stated that Gov. Cumming had been hard at work with some Mormon friends preparing affidavits to send to Washington regarding the release of these prisoners, and taking the strongest ground against the action of Judge Eckels. One or two shooting affrays are reported. The troops rejoiced at the prospect they had of getting away from the Territory.

Rev. Daniel Worth, of North Carolina, now under conviction for selling Helper's Impending Crisis, sentenced to two years' imprisonment, and out on bail of $3,000, told the story of his hardships at the City Assembly Rooms last evening, and nearly $200 was collected for him. He was questioned by a South Carolinian present, and answered to the point. The veritable Helper in propria persona was present, and made a few unimportant remarks.

The second day of Anniversary week presents us with highly interesting reports and proceedings of several of our prominent benevolent educational institutions. The meetings were held last evening.

The Annual Services of the New-York Young Men's Christian Association took place in Dr. Adams' Church, in Madison-square. The attendance was anything but large. Mr. S. S. Goodrich presided, and addresses were made by Rev. Dr. Hague, of New-York, and Rev. Mr. Ells, of Brooklyn, by whom the claims of the Association to public encouragement and sympathy were eloquently urged. From the Treasurer's report it appeared that the balance in his hands to the credit of the Society now amounts to the sum of $90 44.

The American Seamen's Friend Society celebrated the thirty-second anniversary of the organization at Dr. Cheever's Church. Interesting addresses were delivered by Capt. A. Bartlett, of the Marine Missionary Society of Boston; Capt. A. H. Foot, of the United States Navy, and Rev. Walter Clarke, of New-York. The report of the Secretary showed a floating debt of $5,000, and gave a very favorable account of the doings of the Society during the past year.

The twenty-third anniversary of the Union Theological Seminary took place at the Mercer-street Presbyterian Church, on which occasion thirty-one young gentlemen received certificates of graduation. Several of the graduates delivered short essays, and the exercises closed by a parting address to the class from Dr. Skinner, one of the Professors.

The twenty-seventh anniversary of the New York Magdalen Female Benevolent Society, took place at Dr. Pott's Church, corner of University Place and Tenth street. The Treasurer's Report, on the whole, was satisfactory, as it showed that the Institution was less than $1,000 in debt, while its patrons were increasing, and its usefulness almost daily extended. Addresses were delivered by Rev. Drs. Burchard, Strong, and Linley.

The Inebriates Reform Convention held its first Anniversary in the Greene-street Methodist Episcopal Church. Mr. Barnum made the principal address of the evening, and was followed by Mr. King, a reformed inebriate, C. C. Leigh and others.

The Methodist Conference yesterday reconsidered its action on Saturday, in appointing a Committee on Appeals, and the Chair was ordered to appoint a Committee of seven to prepare a code regulating the disposal of all cases which would come under the supervision of such a committee. Bishop Morris presented the answer of the British Wesleyan Conference to the Conference of America. It expressed gratification at the existing sentiment of the churches on the subject of Slavery, and regret that it was impossible to send a delegation. The same Bishop submitted a similar address from the pastors of the annual Conference of France and Switzerland, held at Paris, June 22, 1859. A memorial from Dr. S. Lucker, proposing an executive council for the government of the church, was referred to a special Committee.

The preliminary measures for obtaining some sort of a testimonial for John C. Heenan, the pugilist, were taken last evening by a select party of his admirers, who met at the Malta Saloon, in Broadway. Resolutions congratulatory and complimentary to "the Champion of the World," and Jack McDonald and James Cusick, his trainers and seconds, were passed, and a committee of 16 appointed with power to collect the requisite funds for the purchase of a Champion's Belt, or whatever else might be agreed upon.

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen last evening a resolution was adopted requesting the Mayor to invite the Prince of Wales to visit the City and "partake of its hospitalities." A resolution was offered and referred, directing the Street Commissioner to advertise for proposals for the work of printing and binding the proceedings, documents, &c., of the Common Council, and send the various bids with the award of contract to the Common Council for confirmation. In offering the resolution Alderman Starr stated that the printing of the Common Council for the past year cost about $90,000; and that the printing of the Supervisors, done under contract, was done for one-third the price paid for the Common Council printing. The Councilmen concurred with the Aldermen in inviting the Prince of Wales to visit this City. Acting Mayor Peck sent in a communication inclosing a letter from the Board of Direction of the Great Eastern, making inquiries regarding the possibility of the steamer reaching New-York. Alderman Peck recommended that a hospitable reception be extended to the officers and crew of the vessel. The matter was referred to the appropriate Committee. Both the Croton Board and the City Inspector sent in the names of all employes in their respective Departments, but failed to give the names of the parties who secured them employment, whereat the Councilmen were much offended.

There were 405 deaths in this City last week against 491 during the preceding week. There were 430 and 367 reported for the corresponding weeks of 1858 and 1859, respectively.

The Court of General Sessions, under the auspices of Judge Russell, commenced yesterday for the May term. A Grand Jury was impanneled, and was charged by the Judge on the points required by the statute. Nothing else was done. As soon as another room can be procured, the Recorder will hold a distinct Court, the City Prison being crowded to excess.

The Common Council of Brooklyn organized last evening, electing Mr. Martin Kalbfleisch President. The various officers in nomination, including all the Municipal appointments controlled by the Board, were then chosen, the Democrats uniformly electing their men. The Board of Supervisors also organized, Mr. Stephen Crowell being chosen President. A large number of appointments, Republican in politics, were made.

The Stock Exchange was nearly one per cent. upon the General Share dealings yesterday, as compared with Saturday's last rates; the market closing firm, and with a speculative temper. The Bank return shows a moderate increase on all the items, but with a declining average for the new week. Money easy. Exchange steady. There is less export demand for Specie for the Cunarder on Wednesday.

Cotton was quiet at old prices. The transactions in Flour were limited, as buyers were not disposed to pay asking prices. Heavier sales of Wheat were reported, but at somewhat easier rates. Corn was moderately inquired for. Rye and Barley were depressed. Oats attracted more attention, and were dearer. Groceries, Provisions, Metals, Oils, Spices, Hides and Leather were inactive. Spirits Turpentine was more sought after. A fair demand prevailed for Hay, Tallow and Whisky. Freights were somewhat brisker.

President-Making in Congress.

Territorial business was postponed in Congress yesterday to suit the convenience of members who desire to attend the Convention at Chicago. The courtesy extended to the Democracy at the South could hardly be denied to the Republicans at the West, and the public legislation must wait on the movements of parties.

Our English critics who have been condoling with one another and with us, so feelingly, over the ruin of our institutions, will doubtless cite this now recognized and established practice of our National Legislature as another flagrant proof of our degeneracy from the "days of Washington." The fact cannot be denied. President-making unquestionably exercises over the law-givers of America a fascination at least equal in power to the enchantment which empties the British Parliament on the "Derby Day," and carries the hereditary wisdom of England madly over field and fence in the Christmas holidays. It is, indeed, the great sporting interest of all those among our people who meddle with politics at all; and, like Aaron's rod, it is gradually swallowing up every other feature of our political life. No law of any importance is enacted in Congress without a very careful scrutiny into its bearing, remote or near, upon the prospects of the next impending Presidential campaign.

It would be idle, therefore, to expect that any legislative business whatever should hold its own with the members of either House when the great crisis of their game is upon them. One might as well ask a Mr. Horsman, a Sergeant Kinglake, or a Sir Robert Peel to talk justice, reason and decency about foreign nations, when injustice, nonsense and indecency offer their party the sweet hope of ousting a rival Premier from his seat, and landing themselves among the flesh-pots of the British Treasury. Whether the framers of our Constitution anticipated the extent to which the function of President-making would one day absorb the time and thoughts of American public men may well, perhaps, be doubted. Four years, in the last century, and to the American of Washington's day, were practically five times as long as four years in the present day, and in a Republic of thirty millions of souls. When the mischief which this difference breeds ripens to the full, it is quite possible that a remedy may be found without convulsing the nation or the world.

How to Improve our Rulers.

For whatever color of truth can be found in the charge brought against the "institutions" of the United States by Earl Grey, that the great mass of the people never know who their member is in any legislative body, the City of New-York, as now administered, is mainly responsible. There are very few decent citizens of New-York who can tell without referring to a "Manual" who is their representative, either in the Board of Aldermen, in the Common Council, in the State Legislature or at the Federal capital. We venture to say that two-thirds of the constituents of any member of either branch, are in blissful ignorance of the splendid figure which these municipal statesmen are making in public life. Each citizen knows, as a matter of fact, that he lives in a certain Ward, and he presumes that those provisions of the Charter are regularly carried into execution, which direct the election of a certain number of Aldermen and Common Councilmen to represent it in the City Government. But more than this he does not often know; and his ignorance has now lasted so long that in the majority of instances he has ceased to care. Who selects the candidates—who works to secure their election—what their antecedents are—what are their claims and qualifications—who it is that showers "tickets" into his house on their behalf for a week before the election,—he cannot pretend to guess, and rarely takes the trouble to inquire. And when the Booles and the Bagleys, immediately on entering office, begin to rig out roving sanitary commissions, lavish "municipal hospitalities" on Turks and Japanese, accept proposals to pilot the Great Eastern, build monuments to national heroes, and release ruffians from station-houses, fully two-thirds of the population are utterly unable to say what quarter of the City it is to which these great men owe their appearance in public life.

In all the homilies upon the condition of the City Government, which appear from time to time, this ignorance of respectable men about their representatives, and this indifference about the manner in which these functionaries are nominated or elected, have been acknowledged to be the main cause of all the evils which afflict us. On this point there is no dispute; but when we ask for the remedy, we are invariably told that before any radical change can take place, the intelligent and well-behaved must "attend the primary meetings." We admit that if they did do so, it would be a great thing; but it is high time that we should frankly recognize the fact that they both don't and won't, and provide for it. The problem we have to solve is, not how to improve the primary meetings, but how to govern the City without them. The mass of respectable traders and lawyers, doctors and mechanics, will not turn out of their houses in the evening in order to beard Ward politicians in a bar-room over a corner grocery. They will let the City go to the dogs a dozen times, sooner than do so; and they have for so many years made their determination on this point as manifest as it can possibly be, that it is high time for all earnest reformers to cease badgering them about it. The utmost stretch of civic virtue to which those among the modern New-Yorkers who go to church, wear clean shirts, and live honestly, are capable of rising, is the support of a good candidate at the polls, after he has been placed prominently before their eyes, and care taken not to distract their attention from him. That they may be relied on for this much, however, we think the two last vigorous contests with Wood and the election of Comptroller Haws clearly prove.

Primary Meetings and Nominating Conventions in City politics owe all their importance to the distraction of the public attention by a multiplicity of candidates. When they have to nominate fifty, the caucus men may set the public at defiance. The public becomes bewildered, disgusted; does not know whom to vote for; comes to the conclusion that the candidates are all knaves, and doggedly stays at home; while the rogues thereupon march in boldly and seize the abandoned spoils. But where there are only two or three officers to be chosen, and their duties are known to be important, and the constituency is able to examine them, to fix its mind on them, to learn something about them, the worst Convention is cowed before the responsibility, and learns to pay some attention to decency in its nominations. The nomination of Havemeyer by Tammany Hall, last Fall, was a striking illustration of this power of public opinion whenever it can be brought to a focus. Two years previously it had nominated Fernando Wood, and informed us that we had to take him, "even if he were the devil incarnate;" but as the new Charter had now separated the municipal election from all others, the public was able to turn its own "single eye" on the candidate of the primary meetings, and blasted him in a day.

The moral of all this is very apparent. We must get rid of our cumbrous and ridiculous Common Council; and as we suggested the other day, put half a dozen officers—by what name to be called is of no importance—in their places, to be elected, as the Mayor and Comptroller are,—by THE VOTES OF THE WHOLE CITY.

Candidates for a body of this sort would have all eyes concentrated upon them; none of them could shirk the general scrutiny. Each would have to stand well, not only with the rumsellers and bullies of one ward, but with the intelligence and civilization of the entire City; and when they should come forward, and every voter was aware that the whole Municipal Government was to be elected on a particular day, and that by going to the polls, he could influence the election of each member of it, we believe the "respectable classes" would vote, and vote energetically. Their courage and constancy would be greater than we have any right to expect from any large body of ordinary mortals, if they should labor hard to redeem the City under the present system, in which, after the most arduous exertions to elect a Moses Grinnell or an Isaac Bell in the Fifteenth Ward, they may find him neutralized by the triumph of a Boole, a Barry or a Farley in the Third or Sixth.

The Sardinian Mission.—The House of Representatives, yesterday, did itself credit by passing, without debate, a bill from the Committee on Foreign Relations, which authorizes the President to appoint a Minister of the first class, with a Secretary of Legation, at the Court of Victor Emanuel. It is to be hoped that this prompt and becoming action of the Legislature may secure for us a representative in Italy who will do justice to the sincere satisfaction with which America has watched the progress of recent events in that always glorious, long unfortunate, and now regenerated country. This recognition from beyond the Atlantic, of the great change which has come over the spirit of the Italian dream; of the valor with which Italy has fought for her independence, and of the wisdom with which she has laid the foundations of her future greatness will doubtless be doubly blest—to Italy which receives, and to America which offers it.

The United States have suffered long enough under the unjust reproach of indifference to the hopes and the trials of foreign States. We could not have asked a happier occasion for proving how strongly we sympathize with every rational movement of true progress throughout the world, than has been given us in the tranquil emancipation of Central Italy from the gloom of a brutal despotism into the light of liberty, and from the disease of chronic conspiracy into the health of constitutional order.

The Councilmen and the Prince of Wales.

The Councilmen are in their glory. They are about to keep open house at the cost of the City, and entertain, not indeed angels unawares, but princes with malice prepense. A petition was yesterday evening handed in to these august Conscripts, praying them to bid the Prince of Wales come and see us. The petition, which is signed by a number of respectable citizens of New-York, will be found elsewhere in our columns, and is quite a curiosity in its way. We had not supposed that there existed in the whole world any competent rival of the Court Scribes who compose Her Britannic Majesty's speeches from the throne. Those orations have long been regarded as a fitting part of the solemn but slightly rheumatic pageant with which the Sovereign of Britain opens and closes the sessions of Britain's Parliament; their clumsy periods and hopeless involutions pairing most aptly with the fat cream-colored horses which lug along the gilded royal coach, and with the hyperbolical liveries of the attendant train.

The author of our petition about the heir of England has paid a very pretty compliment to that illustrious young personage, by clothing our cis-Atlantic compliments and good wishes in language not unworthy of the Court Journal, or of Lord Malmesbury himself. He thinks that "international courtesies" have a good effect "between nations," and also that they "lessen the chances of war." He therefore submits to the Fathers that they should extend to the Prince of Wales the "hospitalities" of New-York. Need we say that Boole and Bagley, those noble Amphitryons, leapt delighted at the thought? They whetted their appetites upon a Pasha; a few dozen Japanese on the half-shell will only enhance the delicate rapacity of their desires; and they will feed fat now upon the high-bred, fine-flavored substance of a Prince who sports the plumes of Black Edward in his crest, and whose veins are ripe with a thousand years of royalty.

The Council have voted the Prince the hospitalities of the City. A few, a very few weeks of anxious expectation will satisfy us as to the intentions of his Royal Highness. Perhaps he will come to New-York; perhaps he will not. Perhaps, if he comes, he will visit the "Institutions." In view of this contingency, suppose we open a subscription for supplying Bellevue and Blackwell's Island with arsenic? For, if the Prince has any chivalry in him, the "chances of war" will be rather increased than "lessened" when he finds that the savages of New-York keep up the sports of the heathen arena on a small scale, with new-born babes and palsied paupers for martyrs, and Norway rats in the place of Numidian lions! We wouldn't offer even a sandwich and a glass of sherry to a Prince who could inspect our Common Council and "Institutions" without inwardly resolving to bombard New-York on the first opportunity.

The Irrepressible Conflict.

The political prize-fight at Charleston was renewed yesterday at Washington. The Democrats on this side the water have this advantage of the champions on the other,—they can have a fresh "mill" whenever they like. If the result upon one trial is not satisfactory they can try again. The "drawn battle" which closed the proceedings at Charleston satisfied nobody. So, without waiting for Richmond, Jefferson Davis renewed the contest yesterday in the Senate. He made a very long speech in support of the resolutions which were rejected in the Convention, and in denunciation of Douglas and his platform.

Mr. Davis said nothing that was very new to the country. He merely repeated the demand of that portion of the South which he represents: that Congress should protect property in slaves, just as it protects property in every thing else. He expressed unbounded surprise that the Democratic Party should have refused to do so, and a faint confidence that it would even yet repent of the error of its ways, and concede all that the South desires. This is not impossible,—though, according to present appearances, it does seem somewhat unlikely to happen.

Unfortunately, Mr. Davis does not seem to unite the whole South in support of his views. Mr. Clingman, of North Carolina, did not believe that it was necessary to take the extreme position which Mr. Davis had laid down;—he held to the principle of non-intervention, and insisted upon the necessity of accepting this as a compromise between the North and South.

Mr. Davis insists upon making the direct issue at the coming election. He wishes the question to be met openly and fairly,—whether the Federal Government will, or will not, protect slaveholders in the Territories in the full and undisturbed possession of their slaves, against any action of the Legislatures or the people of the Territories themselves. We trust he may succeed in this endeavor. We wish the Charleston Convention could have agreed to present the issue in precisely this form;—and as it did not, we hope the Richmond Convention will remedy the deficit. Let it nominate Mr. Davis for President, and Mr. Cushing for Vice-President,—we shall then have one side of the issue, at all events, presented in a clear and unmistakable shape.

The Reputed Death of Mr. Harris.—Our Washington correspondent yesterday stated that the rumored death of Townsend Harris, Esq., was "confirmed by private advices." By whom these advices were received, from whom they came, what was their date, and what other advices have ever been received on the subject, are points left wholly in the dark. Meantime we are informed that no such intelligence has reached the State Department at Washington, nor have the friends and correspondents of Mr. H., in this City, any information of the kind.

We received last evening, moreover, a letter from our correspondent at Kanagawa, dated Feb. 23, which makes no allusion to any such event. Until we obtain more definite information, therefore, we shall still hope that the report is without foundation.

Anniversary of the Jersey City Sabbath School.—The fifth anniversary of the Jersey City Sabbath-schools took place yesterday afternoon, and was participated in by about 3,000 children. The schools assembled as follows: Schools—First Presbyterian, 250 scholars; First Reformed Dutch, 150; York street Methodist, 200; Mission, 125; Almshouse, 25. Total, 750. Addresses were delivered by Ralph Wells and Mr. Pardee, General Agent for the Sunday-school Union.

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

The National Union Convention.

FEW DELEGATES ON THE GROUND—HOUSTON AND M'LEAN THE LEADING FAVORITES.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

Baltimore, Monday, May 7.

But few delgates to the Union Convention are on the ground. Ex-Gov. Hunt, of New-York, Messrs. Goggin, of Virginia, and Roman, of Maryland, are among the arrivals.

Mr. Colfax, of Indiana, is also on hand, doubtless in the character of a looker-on.

There is a strong feeling for Gen. Houston, with scarcely less for Judge McLean. As yet, however, matters have not assumed any definite shape. B.

San Francisco, Friday, April 27—3.40 P. M.

Since the Pony Express of the 20th left the following ships have arrived: April 20, Flying Mist, from Hong Kong; 21st, bark Louise, from Hamburg; 22d, ships Morning Star and Buena Vista, from Boston; 23d, ships Ins, Stuart, Neptune's Car and Sea Nymph, from New-York; 25th, steamer Cortez, from Panama, with passeengers who left New-York March 30.

Sailed, April 23, ship Jean Burt, for Mazatlan; 26th, Andrew Jackson, for Callao; Northern Light, for Acapulco.

Imigration has again commenced from China. The ship Flying Mist, arrived from Hong Kong, brought 470 passengers, and the ship James Brown is daily expected with as many more. At last accounts several vessels at Hong Kong were up for San Francisco, offering to bring passengers over very cheap.

It is estimated that $35,000 in drafts were transmitted Eastward by the Pony Express, which may reach their destination, and be presented for payment, twelve days before the steamer having the treasure to meet them arrives in New-York.

The Pony Express, which left St. Joseph's on the 13th, arrived at San Francisco in nine days and seventeen hours.

Telegraphic dispatches from Carson Valley to parties interested, but which cannot yet be published, state that the Indians between Salt Lake and Carson Valley have stolen 30 horses belonging to the Pony Express Company.

A new supply of horses will be sent from Sacramento, but the incoming express may be three or four days behind time in consequence.

The Legislature, since the 20th ult., has passed an act to create the office of State Geologist; to provide for a rate of the people to decide where a Convention shall be called to revise the Constitution.

The bill to appropriate $50,000 to build a wagon road from Placerville to Carson Valley, was considered and lost.

The bill giving a bonus of $60,000 and $40,000, in instalments of $6,000 and $4,000 per annum, to the first and second Companies carrying telegraphic lines across the continent, has passed both Houses.

Late news from Mexico, brought by the steamer Cortez, says a Liberal Army, 6,000 strong, was reported to have taken Colima and Manzanilla, without opposition.

The Washoe silver mines are still the all-absorbing matter of public consideration.

It is estimated that 7,000 people have already gone there.

The improved roads over the mountains give a new impetus to emigration there. A gentleman just returned, met on the mountains, during two days, 1,000 loaded mules, 3,500 head of sheep, and 800 beef cattle going over to the mines. New discoveries of silver mines are reported, and the general belief is increasing in the great extent and richness of this silver region.

The overland mail left for St. Louis at 12 o'clock to-day, taking over 8,000 letters, and four through passengers.

A bill has passed the Legislature appropriating $5,000 to provide wells on the Colorado Desert.

The Legislature has decided to adjourn till Monday, the 30th.

Preparations are making for a grand demonstration in San Francisco in honor of Gov. Downey's veto of the Bulkhead bill.

The Pony Express, with St. Joseph dates to the 20th, arrived at Carson City at 1½ P. M. to-day.

A strong effort has been made in the Legislature to extend the session, but the requisite two-thirds vote could not be obtained.

Oregon dates are received to the 21st. G. K. Othiel has been nominated as the Democratic candidate to Congress, by a Convention held at Eugene City.

The Convention failed to nominate candidates for Presidential electors.

British Columbia advices are to the 24th.

Frazer River mining news continued favorable.

SAN FRANCISCO MARKETS.

Since the sailing of the steamer on the 20th, business with the interior has shown a manifest improvement. Orders are coming forward liberally, and money is becoming more abundant. Trade has, however, not been of sufficient duration yet to bring jobbers forward for goods from first hands to any great extent. They are buying, but scarcely the freedom with which they are moving their own stocks. They should enter the market with the coming week, as there is every indication of steady business from the country. Prices rule steady, and will likely keep so, as no speculative movements appear probable and operators are meeting the market from stocks already on hand. Few speculations have occurred during the past week. Boots and Shoes are dull. Candles active for consumption; sales of the week, 7,700 boxes, closing at 18c.@18½c. for fair brands. Coffee quiet, and little doing. Rice firm; Carolina, 7½c. Cordage very dull. Dry Goods are rather more active, with a slight improvement. Mackerel, $3 ℔ kit, No. 1. New Cod, $6@$6 50. Old unsalable. Lumber moving steadily as last quoted. Malt Liquors were somewhat more active. Pig Iron was firm, with an upward tendency. Molasses and Syrups were unchanged. Nails heavy at 3½c. Naval Stores inactive. Oils very quiet. Provisions—Small sales of Pork and Bacon at rather easier terms for buyers. Beef unchanged. Hams find no sales. Butter—Sales very slow at 27½c. for the best. Lard rather weaker and dull. Sugar—Foreign Raw in fair request by the trade; Domestic do. quiet and firm; small lots of crushed Sugar by recent arrivals are selling at 16c. Large operatives are still holding on without sale. Spirits Turpentine, slow of sale at 70c. Spirits and Foreign Brandies inactive. Domestic Liquors, all looking up. Alcohol, 90c. Brandy, 47½c.@50c. Pure Spirits, 47½c. Whisky, 45c. Teas in more demand for finer qualities, Common without improvement, In Wines, nothing doing of moment.

LATER.

San Francisco, Saturday, April 28.

Arrived last evening, ship Jas Brown, from Hong Kong; steamer Sonora, with 375 passengers, from New-York April 26; all well. The combination among operators in Refined Sugars broke through this morning, causing a great decline in prices, and an auction sale of 3,600 bbls. crushed, powdered and loaf, at an average of 16c.; 1,600 bbls. Eastern crushed, at 12½c.@12c. Traders were the sole purchasers, and have secured a thirty days' supply. The prices since the sale are 13c., both from private hands and refinery.

A Fearful Tragedy.

MURDER OF A WEALTHY FARMER—HIS ASSASSINS SHOT DEAD BY ONE OF HIS SONS.

Easton, Pa., Monday, May 7.

A horrible murder was commiited near here this afternoon. Mr. Thomas Richardson, an old, wealthy and respectable farmer, living three miles above Easton, on the Lehigh River, had an altercation with two of his laborers, which terminated fatally to the whole three. One of the men caught Mr. Richardson around the neck with a scyth, pulling him down on a fence and holding him in that position, whilst his companion beat him on the head with a rail, finally jamming the rail into his brain. Two sons of Mr. Richardson, on coming to his assistance, were threatened, and threats were made to fire the premises and murder the whole family if they were interfered with. One of the boys ran into the house, got a double-barreled gun, and shot both of the men dead.

CODE TO REGULATE APPEALED CASES—ADDRESSES FROM ENGLAND AND FRANCE—AN EXECUTION CONFIRMED.

Buffalo, Monday, May 7.

The call of the Conferences, which was interrupted on Saturday by the adjournment, was resumed.

A successful effort was made to reconsider the action of the Conference on Saturday, in the matter of appointing a Committee on Appeals, and the Chair was ordered to appoint a Committe of seven to prepare a code regulating the disposal of all appeal cases, and report to-morrow.

Bishop Morris presented the answer of the British Wesleyan Conference to the Methodist Episcopal Conference of America.

The address, among other congratulations, expresses warm satisfaction at the existing sentiment in the American Church on the subject of Slavery; also a communication from the same Conference to the Bishops of the American Methodist Episcopal Church, regretting their inability to send a deputation to the present Conference, and expressing the hope that such a deputation will be sent in 1864. The letter also acknowledges the receipt of a communication from the Rock River Conference, on the subject of Slavery, but declining to take any action thereon from deference to its American brethren. The letter also expresses the hope that the American Church will take such action as shall finally separate itself from all connection with that institution.

Bishop Morris also presented an address from the pastors of the Annual Conference of France and Switzerland, held at Paris, June 22, 1859. The address gives a favorable report of the progress of Methodism on the European Continent, notwithstanding the constituted authorities had incited the ignorant population against them, in many instances amounting to serious persecutions. The Church is making rapid progress towards Italy, and hopes that the work in France may still have a claim upon the sympathies of the American Church.

On motion of Mr. Sheer, the Committee on Correspondence was instructed to inquire and report in regard to the statement that the British Conference had been memorialized by the Rock River Annual Conference,

Bishop Morris presented a memorial from Dr. S. Luckey, which was read, in favor of establishing an Executive Conference for the government of the Church, so consist of the Bishops and one delegate from each Annual Conference, to be appointed every four years, whice shall hold annual sessions, and shall have general jurisdiction over the various temporal matters of the Church, wielding the power to investigate all charges against the Bishops, and to try the same, as well as the preachers' subject to an appeal to and a revisal by the general Conference as well as a general superintendency of the book concern and of the Missionary Committee. The memorial proposes so to elect the Executive Conference that three-fourths of each body shall be perpetuated in the succeedng one.

The memorial was referred to a select Committee of Seven to consider and report at an early day.

The Chair announced as the Special Committee to prepare a plan for the disposal of appeals, Messrs. Moody, Clark, Nelson, Hitchcock, Porter, Griffiths and Reddy.

Adjourned.

Seventy-three petitions for a change of the Slavery rule, and two against, were presented to-day.

RETURN OF THE MASSACHUSETTS DELEGATES—ESCAPE AND CAPTURE OF A FUGITIVE—FIRE IN SOUTH BOSTON.

Boston, Monday, May 7.

The steamer S. R. Spaulding, with the Massachusetts Delegation from Charleston, arrived at 2 o'clock this morning.

Some excitement was created on board early on Sunday morning, by a fugitive slave crawling from the coal bunks in search of food and water. He gave his name as William Brocker, and declared he was a free negro, but the circumstances would not admit the truth of that statement. Capt. Howes altered the course of the Spaulding and intercepted the steamer Benjamin Deford, which left Boston Saturday afternoon for Baltimore, when William was transferred to the Deford, and consigned to the parties missing him. The Democracy of the Spaulding could not help admiring the ingenuity and impudence of the fugitive in selecting their special steamer as his transport to liberty.

Boston, Monday, May 7.

The Deputy Marshal.

New-York, Monday, May 7, 1860.

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

A part of your article in this morning's paper, in relation to the recent exposé of the dealings of the Marshal's officers as to the Slave-trade, is calculated to do injustice to Mr. Thompson, the Deputy Marshal. Your article states that Mr. Thompson "made no move in the matter till he found that Mr. Dwight was taking it up. Then, and only then, did he dismiss Munn and 'Dory' from the service." This is a mistake. Mr. Thompson, as soon as he heard of the affair, communicated it to Mr. Dwight, and it was the information derived from him alone which led Mr. Dwight to take it up.

Please insert this correction of the mistake.

THE LAW REPORTER OF THE TIMES.

FROM MEXICO.

Action of the British Government—Feeling of the People in Favor of Interference—Sentiment of the Diplomatic Corps—Large Number of Arrests—State of the City.

From Our Own Correspondent.

CITY OF MEXICO, Friday, March 30, 1860.

The sudden and very unexpected determination of the British Government to interfere in the affairs of this unhappy country, so soon as known here, created a most decided sensation. The clergy, as was naturally to be expected, denounced this interference as most unwarranted; and, although not using such strong language as they have employed against our country, ("the Colossus of the North,") have qualified the English as not much better than they should be, for thus attempting to deprive Spain and France of their natural claims upon Mexico. The clergy prefer the English to us, but nevertheless hate them with great cordiality for demanding that any government that may be established from English mediation must concede "Civil and Religious Liberty." The clergy say—and not without knowing where their power over these miserable people lies—that they would prefer to lose their last dollar rather than give up their monopoly of religion in Mexico which they have so long enjoyed. They know that to admit rivalry is to cut their own throats, to lose their position with the people, and thereby their money very soon; whereas, if they were to give up all their present wealth, but were enabled to keep their exclusive hold upon the public mind, they would regain their wealth, and perhaps be able to conserve their political influence. For every reason, the clergy are bitterly opposed to the propositions of the English Government, and will unquestionably make use of all possible underhanded means to prevent any result being obtained.

Meantime, the great bulk of the decent people of both parties are in favor of English interference, and all the industrial classes in the interior of the country are certain to hail it as a respectable and honestly-proposed termination of the agony which has lasted so long, and brought Mexico to such a lamentable state of poverty and demoralization. Strong efforts are being made here to force the Clergy Government into an immediate acceptance of the English propositions. These efforts, which are being made by the principal persons of wealth, are opposed by the clergy in every possible way. The diplomatic corps have been undecided on the subject—the Pope's Nuncio, and the Ministers of France and Guatemala being on the clergy wing, while Mr. MATHEW leads off in favor of the plan his Government has adopted in consequence of his urgent appeals and lucid expositions of the state of Mexico. The little Prussian, after receiving the unmistakable snubs of all the Germans for the time he has been here, is now on the fence, perhaps a little more than half over on Mr. MATHEW'S side. The Prussian sees GABRIAC and the clergy are the wrong factions to adhere to. The clergy are clearly doomed, and GABRIAC, having possession of the clergy wreck, is too selfish to share the plunder with the Prussian, who, therefore, is sure to go over to the Liberals to see what can be made out of them. Everybody remarks the wonderful likeness of the little Prussian to Mr. FORSYTH, our late unfortunate diplomatic representative in this capital. A few weeks ago he recognized the Miramon Government. The consequence was, MIRAMON got money to go and knock down half of the houses of Vera Cruz. Whatever bad faith the clergy have been guilty of in this money transaction, I cannot say, but the fact is, the little Prussian is now opposed to the clergy—at least, he says he is—although they are just as worthy of his consideration now as they were when he recognized their Government.

But to leave our diplomats, who are a sorry set, if we except Mr. MATHEW, whose many good qualities and sterling sense it appears have caused his Government to name a new man over his head, who, although reported an able and good person, we have reasons from past examples to fear will not be the pillar of strength which Mr. MATHEW now stands amongst the diplomatic pigmies of Mexico. The propositions of England for a mediation in the affairs of Mexico are worthy our most serious consideration. They are unquestionably made with the supposition that the opposition to Mr. BUCHANAN'S Administration is so strong that our Government will be unable to adopt any decided policy—no matter however advantageous to us—towards Mexico, and with the conviction that to allow this country to go on longer in her disgraceful and barbarous course of anarchy will be a just stain upon civilized nations. The fact that England has been driven to action is, to say the least, a serious reflection upon our impracticable foreign policy, and should nerve us to do something to prevent this lesson costing us too dearly. England once the patron of Mexico, Mexico will become on the instant a more desirable place for Northern emigrants than Canada and the Northern States. Her fertile plains and valleys, that now give three crops of corn in the year, without the aid of plow or hoe—that produce the best sugar and coffee in the world—that could produce as good tobacco as Cuba, and rice, vanila, indigo, hemp, cacao, with all the other products of middle and northern regions, will be covered over with thousands upon thousands of the hard-fisted industrial people of Northern Europe. Her mines, now almost abandoned from Indian incursions and civil wars, will create several Californias and Australias. Security will prevail over the land, and all the accompaniments of civilization and progress at once show themselves. In fine, Mexico must, from her position and her unequalled resources, become the richest and most flourishing country on the globe. England has taken the first step to bring all this about. It is true she has commenced carefully, but we know that once having commenced she never goes back, and if we do not do something to prevent she must follow up her course. It is clear the day for our playing "dog in the manger" over Mexico is at an end. Mexico must be pacified and set to rights. If we will not do it England will, and who out of the most patriotic of us can say but she does well? The consequences of the establishment of an English protectorate over Mexico will, of necessity, be very great upon our institutions; and in case of war with that country, at any distant day, we shall have our enemy on all sides of us. The Southern States will feel such a protectorate from the hour it is established. Slaves will then be able to find homes in Mexico without one-tenth the risk they now run in passing by underground railroad to Canada. Our interests are clearly in favor of our doing what England proposes to do, but if our stupid political squabbles are more dear to us than our own duty and national interests, we can but gain by having this wretched anarchized country put in order and thrown open to our mercantile adventurers.

From the date of my last up to the arrival of the news of MIRAMON'S retreat from Vera Cruz, this city remained the recipient of all manner of absurd reports, the most attractive of which was to the effect that Admiral PENAUD had arrived at Vera Cruz, and upon his demand the commander of the Saratoga had given up the two prizes taken at Anton Lizardo on the 6th. This report was published, and gave rise to some laments from the Spanish organ that the French had interfered, claiming that the castigation of the Yankees belonged to the Spaniards and not to the French. During all of this time the local Press have been most bitter against us, inciting the public mind as much as possible. In case the English propositions are not listened to, it is probable we shall all get our orders to leave here. Very few will feel sorry to be ordered away, much as their exile may injure them pecuniarily. If we are to be bastilized by the Priest Party, without receiving any effective protection from our Government, it will in fact be a charitable act for the Clergy to send us all away. We may lose money, but will have the satisfaction of knowing our lives are not in danger.

MIRAMON has not yet arrived here, but is expected in a few days—that is, if he can manage to slip through the fingers of CARVAJAL & Co., who should be able to catch him; but I fear they will not. His first operation on coming here will unquestionably be to impose a new forced loan. They say the decree is already drawn up, and only awaits his arrival. This report, whether true or false, appears natural, from the fact that the Clergy have no other means left them for raising money.

A great number of arrests have been made in the past few days—cause supposed to be a conspiracy in favor of the Constitutionalists. On detecting the conspiracy the Chief of Police seized an unfortunate devil and hung him up by the thumbs and beat him with a stick until he confessed the truth or told a falsehood which he knew would gratify the fancy of the Chief.

The interior, for the moment, is exceedingly quiet. The Clergy garrisons appear to be growing small rapidly by desertions. The Constitutionalists have established strong encampments near Guadalajara and San Luis, apparently awaiting the result of the Vera Cruz campaign. DEGOLLADO has gone again to the interior, and will doubtless get together a large army in a short time for the purpose of attacking Mexico.

Here we are in the deepest misery. The Clergy are cross and ugly. New taxes threaten us, and light appears to break for us in no direction.

The Tacubaya Railroad, the property of an American, has been confiscated by the Clergy in the most arbitrary manner, because he would not pay a sum of money which was wanted, and which Mr. HAMMELAN'S railroad grant not only exempted, but actually prohibited him from paying. The proceedings against Mr. HAMMELAN commenced the day after the arrival of the news of MARIN'S seizure, and the public say the confiscation has been made purely through a spirit of revenge. The railroad has cost Mr. H. over $200,000, and all this is confiscated against law, merely because the owner is an American. This act may be taken as a key to what is to follow.

P. S.—I have just learned that the French Minister is ordered by his Government to support Mr. MATHEW in mediating with the two parties.

[BY TELEGRAPH.]

COLIMO, Mexico, April 4.

We have recently had another change in the Government. On the 27th of March, the Conservators hearing of the near and rapid approach of about 5,000 Liberals from Zapotlan, which they had taken, and completely routed General Valder with the loss of over 1,000 men and arms, suddenly left the city, retreating for Guadaljara. The Liberals entered the city on the 28th, 29th and 30th of March. Perfect order prevailed. The Liberals have now nearly all left in pursuit of the retreating Mochas and are marching upon Guadalajara, which in connection with forces from Mazattan they confidently expect to take within a month. A courier reached here yesterday from Vera Cruz with despatches to the government. A bulletin was immediately issued informing the public of the unsuccessful attack of MIRAMON on Vera Cruz. His loss was stated to be great. He besieged the place six days, and finally lost all his artillery, 80 pieces, and the greater part of his army. In the evening Colima was illuminated. The prospect of peace being soon established is brightening.

THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

THE HOSPITALITIES OF THE CITY TO BE TENDERED TO THE PRINCE OF WALES—COMMON COUNCIL PRINTING TO BE DONE BY CONTRACT.

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen, last evening, a resolution was adopted directing the Street Commissioner to proceed at once with the laying out of Mount Morris-square.

The following petition was presented:

To the Mayor and Common Council of the City of New-York:

The undersigned, citizens of New-York, venture to call your attention to the visit which the Prince of Wales, the heir apparent to the throne of Great Britain and Ireland, is about to make to America, on the invitation of the British Provinces.

This is to be regarded as the visit, not merely of a person of great distinction, but of a future ruler, to his future subjects, and partaking of an official character.

Considering the intimate relations which exist between our country and England, and by how many ties we are bound to that great people, over which the Prince of Wales will hereafter reign, and not forgetting that international courtesies tend to promote good understanding between nations, and to lessen the chances of war, we beg leave to suggest that he should be invited to visit this city and receive its hospitalities.

A resolution was adopted and sent to the Board of Councilmen, to the effect that, as it is currently reported that His Royal Highness the Prince of WALES is about to visit Her Britannic Majesty's dominions in North America, His Honor the Mayor be requested to invite His Royal Highness to visit this City, and partake of its hospitalities.

The communication from the City Inspector to the Board of Health, relative to the health of the City, was received and referred to the Committee on Ordinances.

The Committee on Contested Seats were discharged from further consideration of contested seats in the Second and Eighth Aldermanic Districts.

A resolution was adopted directing the Street Commissioner to have Pine-street renumbered, from Broadway to the East River.

The Board concurred to have 1,000 copies of the laws passed by the late Legislature, relating to the City, printed for the use of City authorities.

The resolution requesting the Mayor to offer a reward of $2,500 for the detection of the person or persons who set fire to the house in Forty-fifth street, in which 11 persons were burned to death.

The following resolution was offered by Alderman STARR, and referred to the Committee on Salaries and Offices:

Resolved, That the Street Commissioner be and hereby is directed to advertise for proposals for the work of printing and binding the proceedings, documents, &c., of the Common Council and send the various bids, with award of contract, to the Common Council for confirmation.

In offering the resolution, Alderman STARR stated that the Common Council printing and binding for the past year cost nearly $99,000; and that the printing of the Board of Supervisors, under a contract, did not cost more than one-third the Common Council prices.

The Board resolved to have 5,000 copies of the report of the proceedings on the occasion of the Atlantic Telegraph celebration printed and bound.

The Board then adjourned.

BOARD OF COUNCILMEN.

THE PRINCE OF WALES TO BE ENTERTAINED BY THE CITY—THE GREAT EASTERN TO BE OFFICIALLY RECEIVED.

At the regular meeting of this Board yesterday, the usual routine of petitions was gone through with, and a large number of reports and resolutions from the Board of Aldermen were appropriately referred. A report quietly laid over, but which involves vast interests, was one in favor of widening Grand-street from Broadway to Varick-street, by taking off twenty-five feet from the southerly side, and to extend the street from its present terminus to Canal-street.

A resolution from the Board of Aldermen, requesting the Mayor to invite the Prince of Wales to extend his visit to the City of New York, on the occasion of his anticipated visit to Canada, was unanimously concurred in.

A communication was received from the Acting Mayor, accompanied by a letter from the Board of Directors of the steamer Great Eastern, inquiring as to the possibility of the steamer entering the harbor of New-York. The Acting Mayor recommends "that measures be taken to have suitable accommodations for the Great Eastern, and extend a hospitable reception to her officers and crew." The message was appropriately referred.

The Croton Department, in answer to a resolution of inquiry, sent in the names of all persons employed by the Board, covering fifteen pages of foolscap, and giving the names of every foreman and laborer employed on the works. The reading was dispensed with, after hearing a few names, and the communication was placed in the tomb of the capulets. A similar disposition was made of a communication from the City Inspector, in answer to a similar resolution of inquiry, but great dissatisfaction was expressed as to both, inasmuch as neither department had stated the names of the parties who had secured employment for the various operatives.

BOARD OF HEALTH.

ADJOURNMENT WITHOUT TRANSACTION OF BUSINESS.

This body met yesterday, pursuant to adjournment, but transacted no business worthy of record. The operations of the new Police law restrict their operations very sensibly, and their powers really extend no further now than to remove any absolute nuisance, reported by their medical adviser, and to receive $4 per diem for their services as members of the Board of Health.

BROOKLYN INTELLIGENCE.

Organization of the New Common Council.

DISTURBANCE IN THE LOBBY—REPUBLICANS INSULTED—THE POLICE WITHDRAW—MAYOR'S MESSAGE.

The new Board of Aldermen assembled, last evening, in the Common Council chamber. The Mayor took the chair at a few minutes past 6 o'clock, and called the Board to order, every member being present. The Democrats having a majority of three, elected their entire caucus nominations, as follows:

For President of the Board—Martin Kalbfleisch.
For Clerk of the Common Council—W. G. Bishop.
For Health Officer—Dr. J. B. Jones.
For Clerk of the Market—John Harron.
For Clerk of Justice Blackley's Court—James Buckley.
For Clerk of Justice Moorehouse's Court—Thomas A. Gregory.
For Clerk of Justice Callahan's Court—William A. Brown.
For Clerk of the Fifth District Court—William H. Dunham.
For Keeper of the City Parks—John Campbell.
For Keeper of the City Hall—John Flanagan.
For Assistant Keeper City Hall—Thomas McGuire.
For Keeper of the Closets—Michael Smith.
For Inspectors of Pavements, Western District—Jas. H. McGill, Henry Corr.
For Inspector of Pavements, Eastern District—Jas. Fitzgerald.
For Clerk of Justice Cornwell's Court—Michael Walsh.
For Clerk of Justice Voorhies' Court—John Burtis.
For Sealers of Weights and Measures, Western District—George Miller, Michael Baxter.
For Sealers of Weights and Measures, Eastern District—T. Hayden, Daniel Luyster.
For Inspectors of Meat, Western District—John Walsh, John O'Niel.
For Inspectors of Meat, Eastern District—Andrew Decker, David Klinck.
For Poundmaster, Western District—H. Y. Gascoigne.
For Poundmaster, Eastern District—John Roth.
For Poundmaster in the Eighth Ward—Patrick McNemara.
For Keeper of the Hamilton Bridge—Michael Hare.
For Messenger to the Board—David A. Sutton.

As the results of the several ballots were announced, there was considerable applause in the lobby, which the Police, under Deputy-Superintendent FOLK, who had been requested by the Mayor to be present to preserve order, attempted to stop, saying that unless it ceased those who made the noise must go out. Upon this, one the lobby exclaimed in a loud voice, that "he would make just as much noise as he pleased, and no Black Republican could put him out." Aldermen SCHOLES and STRONG asked that the Deputy-Superintendent be directed to put out not only the man who had spoken, but all others who made a noise, and a resolution to that effect was offered. Alderman DAYTON spurned the idea of the Police interfering with the people in the lobby. The Board had not invited them to be present; when they were wanted they would be called upon. The resolution was lost, when the person who was the immediate cause of the motion pointed his finger at the Deputy-Superintendent of Police, and bid him defiance. After the remarks of Alderman DAYTON the Police were withdrawn by the Deputy Superintendent of Police. The President, upon taking his seat, thanked his friends for this renewed evidence of their confidence, and referred to his past course as an indication of what he should do in the future. While he should look to the interests of the city first, he was nevertheless a Democrat and should act accordingly. The Mayor's message was presented but not read, and ordered to be printed. The nativity of the officers elected is as follows: Irishmen, 18; Germans, 4; Americans, 6; Englishman, 1.

The Mayor in his message says that the city, in every respect, was never in a more prosperous condition than now, and that during the last year 1,551 buildings were erected.

The Board adjourned for one week.

ORGANIZATION OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.

Yesterday afternoon the new Board of Supervisors assembled in the County-Jail building, Raymond-street, and organized by the election of STEPHEN CROWELL, Republican, President. The Committees were then announced as follows:

One reason why Mrs. Southworth's stories are so very interesting is, that they are true—that they are drawn from life. As she once remarked to us, in a private note: "I have never yet had occasion to draw upon my imagination for any of the incidents narrated in any of my stories. They are all true to life."

OAK ORCHARD ACID SPRING-WATER.—This water is gaining great celebrity, and the demand for it is increasing rapidly. Its beneficial character is attested by thousands, and it is pronounced by distinguished physicians to be superior to any other medicinal spring water now in use. The almost miraculous cures which it has performed lead us to believe that it is destined to become extensively used in the treatment of very many diseases which ordinary remedies fail to cure. Its curative properties are established beyond question, and we feel assured that it must, to a great extent, supersede many of the artificial compounds of the day. We recommend those of our readers who may be suffering from general debility, or from any of the diseases for which this water is prescribed, to give it a trial. No water genuine unless procured from H. W. BOSTWICK, sole agent, New-York.

A WORD TO THE AGED.—IN THE DECLINE of life the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay, can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits, without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS as an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effect. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, acts like a charm upon the spirits, and tends not only to prolong life beyond its usual span, but to render it as enjoyable in its evening as in its prime. For dyspepsia, oppression after eating, bilious colic, wind colic, spasms of the stomach, nervous head-ache, chills and fever, tremens, prostration and all the complaints special to the feebler sex, the Bitters are earnestly recommended by thousands who have witnessed their superior efficacy in such cases.

FARMS.

VALUABLE FARM FOR SALE—SITUATED at Fondas Bush, Fulton County, N. Y., 8 miles from Amsterdam, on the New-York Central Railroad, and 9 miles from Johnstown, the County seat. The farm contains 105 acres, all fine tillable land, with the exception of 7 acres of woodland. It is well watered, and a fine, large stream of water runs through it; it is free of stones, good soil, easily tilled, and in a high state of cultivation. The barns, out-houses and fences are in good repair. The land adjoins the village, and there are three two-story dwelling-houses and a store on the farm, all pleasantly situated in the village. A magnificent grove of evergreens surrounds the farm-house. A good cash business is done in the store, and the post-office is kept there. The village contains a large brick flouring mill, large tannery and two stores. One mile east is a village of 1,500 inhabitants. There are 8 cows, 3 horses and all the farming utensils, which will be sold with the above or separately. The roads are excellent; it is a healthy country, and decidedly the most desirable farm in that vicinity. Whether as a Summer residence or for agricultural purposes, such a farm is rarely offered. For full particulars, inquire at Nos. 92 and 94 Cliff-st.

PROPOSALS.

LOAN FOR $1,200,000 FOR THE DEFICIENCY in the Sinking Fund, under Section three, Article seven, of the Constitution.

The Commissioners of the Canal Fund, by virtue of the act entitled "An act to provide means to support the Government," passed April 12, 1856, and in accordance with Section three of Article seven of the Constitution, hereby give notice that sealed proposals will be received at the Canal Department until the 26th day of June next, at 12 o'clock noon of that day, for a loan of TWELVE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS, for which transferable certificates of stock will be issued in the name of the people of the State of New-York, on the credit of the Sinking Fund, under Section three, Article seven, of the Constitution, bearing interest at the rate of six per cent per annum, payable quarterly on the first days of January, April, July and October, in each year, and the principal reimbursable on the 1st day of January, 1862. It is to be understood that the Commissioners are to be at liberty to take a less sum, if the offers are not such as, in their opinion, are advantageous to the interest of the State. The proposals may be for the whole or any part of said loan not less than $5,000. All proposals to be sealed up and indorsed "Loan for the Sinking Fund," and inclosed in an envelope directed to the Auditor of the Canal Department, Albany.

The money will be required to be paid five per cent. on the acceptance of the proposal, and the balance on the 30th day of June next.

Payments to be made by depositing the same to the credit of the "Treasurer of the State on account of the Canal Fund," in the Manhattan Company, New-York, or in the New-York State Bank, in the City of Albany. Interest on the loan will commence on the first day of July next, and the holders of the stock residing in the First and Second Judicial Districts, and those residing out of the State, will receive the interest on the Stocks held by them, quarterly, at the Manhattan Company in the City of New-York; and all other Stockholders at the New-York State Bank, in the City of Albany.

Dated Canal Department, Albany, May 3, 1860.

ROBERT CAMPBELL, Lieutenant-Governor.
ROBERT DENNISTON, Comptroller.
PHILIP DORSHEIMER, Treasurer.
CHARLES G. MYERS, Attorney-General.

NAVY BEEF AND PORK.—NAVY AGENCY, New-York, April 28, 1860. Sealed proposals indorsed "Proposals for Beef," and "Proposals for Pork," as the case may be, will be received at this office until 12 o'clock, noon, on THURSDAY, the 10th May next, for furnishing and delivering, free of all cost and risk to the United States, at the Navy Yard at Brooklyn,

1,000 barrels beef;
1,000 barrels pork.

The beef must be from well-fattened cattle. The pork must be packed from corn-fed, well-fattened hogs. The barrels must conform as near to Navy beef and pork contract barrels as practicable. Every offer must be accompanied by a written guarantee, signed by one or more responsible persons, to the effect that he or they undertake that the bidder or bidders will, if his or their bid be accepted, enter into an obligation immediately, with good and sufficient sureties, to furnish the article proposed. This guarantee must be accompanied by the certificate of the United States District Judge, United States District Attorney, Collector, Post Master or Navy Agent, that the guarantors are able to make good their guarantee. No proposal will be considered unless accompanied by such guarantee. The beef and pork must conform to the usual inspection of the Navy Yard. Full particulars may be ascertained upon application to the Commandant at the Navy Yard, or at this office.

The above beef and pork is purchased on account of defaulting contractors, and must be furnished forthwith. GEORGE N. SANDERS, Navy Agent.

SEALED PROPOSALS WILL BE RECEIVED by the School Officers of the Xth Ward, at the office of the Clerk of the Board of Education, corner of Grand and Elm sts., until SATURDAY, the 12th day of May, inst., at noon, for refurnishing School-house No. 42, in Allen-st., near Hester, in said Ward, according to plans and specifications on file at the office of the Superintendent of School Buildings, No. 94 Crosby-st. Proposals must be indorsed, "Proposals for Refurnishing Grammar School No. 42," and must embrace estimates for lifting and for stationary settees, separate; also, for movable and stationary seats and desks. Drawings of the proposed style of furniture must accompany the bids. Each proposal must be accompanied with the names of two responsible and approved sureties. The School Officers of the Ward reserve the right to reject any or all of the proposals offered, if deemed for the public interest to do so.

CORNELIUS CORSON,
DANIEL SLOTE,
BENJAMIN H. WILLIS,
ANDREW J. KASMIRE,
EDWARD R. HOLSWORTH,
Special Committee on Repairs of the Xth Ward.

NOTICE.—SEALED PROPOSALS WILL BE RECEIVED by the School Officers of the XIIth Ward, at the office of the Clerk of the Board of Education, corner Grand and Elm sts., until Tuesday, the 15th day of May next, at noon, for the erection of an addition to and alterations and repairs of school-house No. 46, situated in 156-st., near 10th-av., according to the plans and specifications, which may be seen at the office of the Superintendent of School Buildings, No. 94 Crosby-st. Each proposal must be accompanied with the written consent of two responsible and approved sureties for the faithful performance of the contract.

The School Officers of the Ward reserve the right to reject any or all of the proposals offered if they shall deem it best for the public interest to do so.

D. WM. HURD,
JAMES DAVIS,
WM. H. HAYS,

MUSICAL.

A GREATLY IMPROVED PIANO-FORTE.

LIGHTE & BRADBURYS,
Manufacturers of
GRAND AND SQUARE PIANO-FORTES,
No. 421 Broome-st.

We desire to inform the Profession, the Trade and the Public generally, that having rebuilt our Factory, recently destroyed by fire, on a greatly enlarged and improved plan, we are now prepared to supply our friends with our

NEW SCALE
OVERSTRUNG BASS
PATENT INSULATED FULL IRON-FRAME
PIANO-FORTES.

In rebuilding our factory, years of experience have enabled us to introduce very many improvements, both in the structure of the building and in the machinery, and in getting up our NEW PIANO-FORTE our aim and determination has been to produce an instrument that shall defy competition. Our first artists have cheerfully testified to the great superiority of our NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTES. We cordially invite all to examine for themselves.

STEINWAY & SONS
PATENT OVERSTRUNG GRANDS
AND SQUARE PIANOS

Are now considered the Best Pianos manufactured. Opinion of nearly all the greatest and most prominent Musicians and Artists regarding these Instruments:

The undersigned, having personally examined and practically tested the improvement in Grand Pianos, invented by H. STEINWAY, in which the covered strings are overstrung above those remaining, do hereby certify:

1. That as a result of the said improvement the voice of the Piano is greatly improved in quality, quantity and power.
2. The sound by Steinway's improvement is much more even, less harsh, stronger, and much better prolonged, than that realized in any other Piano with which we are acquainted.
3. The undersigned regard the improvement of Mr. Steinway as most novel, ingenious and important. No Piano of similar construction has ever been known or used, so far as the undersigned know or believe:

A GOOD THING, THAT EVERYBODY should have: HUMPHREYS' SPECIFIC HOMEOPATHIC REMEDIES stand confessedly at the head of remedial means for the use of the people. They are alike removed from the poisonous, dangerous and repulsive doses of quackery, or Old School practice; the inconvenience of Water Cure, or the intricate and perplexing obscurities of the usual Homeopathic books and medicines. Consisting of simple specifics for the various diseases to which they are related—put up in the form of simple sugar pellets—and prepared of ingredients neither dangerous nor disgusting, they are the ready aid of the parent or nurse, and the comfort of the complaining and invalid.

They possess these positive advantages: They are harmless; no injury can arise from their use. They are simple; you always know what to take, and how to take it. They are convenient; you can give the proper Sugar Pills at a moment's warning, without hesitation or delay. They are efficient; in thousands of cases disease is arrested at once, and the system freed without prostration or delay.

TRIESEMAR.

COUNTERPARTS OF THE PATENT IMPERIAL, EUROPEAN and COLLEGIATE SEALS are upon each wrapper around TRIESEMAR Nos. 1, 2 and 3, and every package is accompanied by a book of 124 pages, replete with the most invaluable information. To be had wholesale and retail from Dr. H. A. BARROW, No. 194 Bleecker-st., (four doors from Macdougal-st.) New-York, where he may be confidentially consulted, as usual, from 11 till 2 and from 4 till 8 in the evening; on Sundays from 11 till 2. Triesemar No. 1 effectually removes general and local debility, premature decay, spermatorrhea and all the distressing consequences of excess; all physical impediments vanish like magic before its influence, thus rendering it invaluable to those about being married: even in the decline of life its invigorating powers are astonishing. Triesemar No. 2 has superior properties in those cases where copaiva and cubebs have been administered. Triesemar No. 3 entirely eradicates all impurities from the system; is most excellent in secondary symptoms, thus obviating the necessity of mercury or other deleterious mineral. Triesemar Nos. 1, 2, & 3, being in the form of an agreeable lozenge, is portable, and may be taken with the utmost facility while traveling by sea or land. Single case, $3; 4 cases in 1, $9; or in $27 cases, thereby saving $9. Forwarded by Dr. BARROW, on receiving a remittance, from No. 194 Bleecker-st., N. Y. Consultations from 11 till 2, and from 4 till 8. Sundays 11 till 2. Sold by F. C. Wells & Co., No. 115 Franklin-st., N. Y., and J. Worthington, No. 206 Fulton-st., Brooklyn.

HAMMOND ON "NERVOUS DEBILITY," &c., &c.

THE SECOND EDITION, INTENDED FOR POPULAR USE. See testimonials—medical, literary and religious—in the Book. Price $1, postage free. HENDRICKSON, BLAKE & LONG, Publishers, Nos. 21 and 23 Ann-st., New-York.

DR. MAGNIN'S LUCINA CORDIAL, OR ELIXIR OF LOVE.—This delightful and positive invigorant of the human system is fast superseding all other remedies; in fact when its virtues become fully known it will be the only remedy in use. Its action on the nervous system and reproductive organs is most extraordinary, allaying all over-excitement, and infusing into the nervous organization that degree of tension which is requisite to give the human system the enjoyment of its full powers, both mentally and physically. As an appetizer it is equally remarkable; assimilated with the gastric juices of the stomach, it assists them in readily dissolving all nutritious substances, and converting them into pure and wholesome blood; thus the digestion is improved, and the whole framework of man moves on in a more vigorous and harmonious manner thereby. Price $3 per bottle, or two bottles for $5. Principal office No. 203 Fulton-st., New-York. DR. MAGNIN.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT TO BOTH SEXES—MARRIED OR SINGLE, IN HEALTH OR DISEASE.—Dr. LARMONT'S PARIS, LONDON AND NEW-YORK MEDICAL ADVISER AND MARRIAGE GUIDE, 30th edition. Among the contents is the anatomy of the sexual organs of the male and female, all their diseases and weaknesses; latest discoveries in reproduction, European Hospital practice; quacks, (advertisers,) their recipes and specifics; the author's unequaled Paris and London treatment of all Genito-urinary diseases, at No. 647 Broadway, up stairs, New-York, from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.; Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 7 till 9 o'clock.

DR. WARD, NO. 483 BROADWAY, PERFORMS the only permanent and satisfactory cure of private diseases. Remember, afflicted, that by consulting Dr. WARD, you will immediately experience that Richard is himself again. All other remedies conquered by Dr. WARD'S Unfortunate's Friend. Price $1, and book gratis. Female diseases successfully treated. His monthly pills, $1 per box, never fail of the effect intended. Recommended to ladies. Office No. 483 Broadway, next to Wallack's Theatre, up stairs. Attendance till 10 P. M. Patients see none only the Doctor himself. Come, send or write.

IMPORTANT TO THE MARRIED, AND THOSE ABOUT TO BE MARRIED.—Dr. A. M. MAURICEAU, Professor of Diseases of Women, has just published the 160th edition of his valuable book entitled "THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMPANION," strictly intended for those whose health or circumstances forbid a too rapid increase of family. Price $1. Sold at his office, No. 129 Liberty-st., New-York; or can be sent by mail, free of postage, to any part of the United States and Canada, by inclosing $1, and addressing Box No. 1,224 New-York City. For sale at No. 1 Vesey-st., (Astor House,) and 18 Ann-st.

AN ACT OF GRATITUDE.—20,000 COPIES OF a Medical Book for gratuitous circulation, by a sufferer, who has been effectually cured of nervous debility, loss of memory and dimness of sight, resulting from early errors, by following the instructions given in a medical work, considers it his duty, in gratitude to the author, and for the benefit of consumptive and nervous sufferers, to publish the means used. He will, therefore, send free, to any address, on receipt of two stamps, a copy of the work, containing every information required. Address Box No. 579 P. O., Albany, N. Y.

EDWARD H. DIXON, M. D., EDITOR OF the Scalpel, attends exclusively to operative surgery, and the more obscure diseases of the pelvic viscera. Rupture, hemorrhoids, fistula, and concealed ulcers. The latter are cured without the knife or ligature. Office hours from 8 to 9 A. M., 1 to 3 and 7 to 9 P. M., at No. 42 5th-av. At all other hours he is at his private hospital, where every comfort of domestic life is provided for those who require the more important operations, or careful dietetic treatment.

HUNDREDS OF THE UNFORTUNATE are disappointed of a cure by not calling on Dr. HUNTER at first. The Hunterian Dispensary, No. 3 Division-st., New-York City, established in 1834, for the Preservation of Human Life. PRIVATE CONSULTATION.—Dr. Hunter has for thirty years confined his attention to diseases of a certain class, in which he has treated no less than fifty thousand cases without an instance of failure. His great remedy, HUNTER'S RED DROP, cures certain diseases when regular treatment and all other remedies fail; cures without dieting or restriction in the habits of the patient; cures without the disgusting and sickening effects of all other remedies; cures, in new cases, in less than six hours. It roots out the poisonous taint the blood is sure to absorb, unless this remedy is used. It is $1 a vial, and cannot be obtained genuine anywhere but at the old office, No. 3 Division-st. Book for nothing, that treats of the evil effects of early abuse and indulgence, is embellished with elaborate colored engravings, portraying every feature and phase of disease, exposes the fallacy of the ordinary modes adopted for the cure of local as well as hereditary maladies, and gives the only safe and infallible remedy for expunging every trace of the virus from the system.

MEDICAL.

DR. COOPER, NO. 14 DUANE-STREET, so well known to the victims of delicate diseases as the most successful practitioner in New-York, in the treatment of this complaint, is still to be found at the old office, which he has occupied for the last 28 years. He can safely promise to all who need medical attendance a permanent cure, no matter of how long standing the case may be. The victims of misplaced confidence who have been misled by quack advertisements, can call on Dr. C. with the certainty of being radically cured. N. B.—Dr. C. is a qualified Physician and Surgeon, and a member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of New-York.

THE CONFESSIONS AND EXPERIENCE OF A VICTIM—Designed for the benefit, and as a warning and a caution to young men who suffer from Nervous Debility, Premature Decay, &c., as a consequence of early errors, supplying the means of Self-Cure by one who cured himself, after having been put to great expense through medical imposition and quackery. Single copies may be had of the author, NATHANIEL MAYFAIR, Esq., East Brooklyn, Kings County, N. Y., by inclosing a post-paid, addressed envelope.

OCULISTS AND AURISTS.

THE EYE AND EAR.

JOHANNES JONES, M. D., No. 137 4th-av., New York, a graduate of the old and new school Medical Colleges, has had the advantages of the Eye and Ear Institutions of America and Europe, is the only scientific Oculist and Aurist now practicing. His diplomas and documents hang in his office.

PUBLIC NOTICES.

FIRST DIVISION N. Y. S. MILITIA.

NEW-YORK, May 7, 1860.

The remains of Lieutenant-Colonel CHARLES H. SANFORD, Division Quartermaster, having arrived from Venezuela, the funeral will take place on WEDNESDAY, the 9th inst., at 2½ o'clock P. M., from his late residence, No. 312 West 22d-st.

The Officers of the Division are invited to attend the funeral, in uniform, with the usual badge of mourning. They will assemble at Knickerbocker Hall, corner of 8th-av. and 23d-st., at 2 o'clock P. M.

Company H of the Seventh Regiment, of which he was for many years a member, having tendered their services, will act as a guard of honor on the occasion.

The funeral service will take place at Trinity Chapel, in West 25th-st., at 3 o'clock P. M. His friends and those of the family, are respectfully invited to attend.

By order of Major-General SANFORD.
GEO. W. MORELL, Division Engineer,
Acting Division-Inspector.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

In consequence of the constantly increasing imitations of the different brands of Messrs. Moët & Chandon's Champaign Wines, especially of their Vin Impérial (green seal,) I consider it my duty to caution the public against such imposition, and to advise purchasers and consumers to buy the Moët & Chandon Wines only from reliable and respectable houses.

ADOLPHUS OECHS,
Messrs Moët & Chandon's General Agent
for the United States and the Canadas.
NEW-YORK, May 4.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, May 1, 1860.

$100 REWARD.—IN CONFORMITY WITH A resolution of the Common Council of the City of New-York, approved by me this day, I, William J. Peck, Acting Mayor of said City, do hereby offer a reward of one hundred dollars for the apprehension and conviction of the person or persons who burglariously entered the house of Hose Company No. 49, at No. 126 Cedar-st., on the 13th of April last, and took away property belonging to the City of New-York, said reward to be paid on the certificate of the District-Attorney, or the Judge before whom the conviction was had, that the claimant or claimants are entitled to said reward, but all claims not presented to the Mayor within twenty days after said conviction will be disregarded. WM. J. PECK, Acting Mayor.

NOTICE TO LIQUOR DEALERS—THE Commissioners of Excise for the City and County of New-York will hold the first meeting of their Board on TUESDAY, the 15th day of May, 1860, and continue to sit for fifty days consecutively, at 2 o'clock P. ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

THE NEW OPERA—PATTI.

TO-MORROW, (Wednesday,) second night of Rossini's great opera of
MOSES IN EGYPT.

The sale of seats for Wednesday commences this morning, and for Friday, the third night of MOSES, to-morrow morning, at the ACADEMY OF MUSIC, BREUSING'S, and at SIBELL'S, No. 12 Wall-st.

On WEDNESDAY EVENING, May 9, at 8 o'clock, second night of
MOSES IN EGYPT.

Being the new version expressly arranged by Rossini for the Italian Opera in Paris, known as IL NUOVO MOSE.
Miss ADALINE PATTI,
Mme. STRAKOSCH, Mme. FICHER,
BRIGNOLI, FERRI. SUSINI,
SCOLA, DUBREUL.

The music of MOSE IN EGITTO has been studied and rehearsed under the immediate superintendence of Sig. MUZIO.

The Directors believe that in selecting Rossini's master-work as the last new Opera to be brought out this season, they not only have consulted their own interests, but have likewise fulfilled the ardent wish of the public at large, who for many years have been anxious to see this Opera performed. At no time could the Directors have brought it out with fuller justice to the fame of the great composer, and to the grandeur of the music, than at present. Signor SUSINI'S Italian reputation is identified with this Opera, and he is universally considered, both in London and the principal cities in Italy, as the greatest living representative of Mose. Signor FERRI has won his last laurels in Milan as Pharao, whilst Signor BRIGNOLI has had the honor of creating the principal tenor part when "Mose in Egitto" was revived some six years ago, for the début of Madame Bosio at the Grand Opera in Paris. The three leading male parts are, therefore, in the hands of artists who have given abundant proof of their capability of rendering them more than adequately. As regards Miss PATTI, with her extraordinary facility and genius, she has mastered the enormous difficulties of her rôle with such success that the directors would be sorely disappointed if the part of Aniade should not prove one of her most artistic achievements.

The sale of seats for the second night of MOSES commences this morning, and for Friday, the third night, to morrow morning, at the Academy of Music, Breusing's, and at Sibell's, No. 12 Wall-st.

On FRIDAY—Third night of
MOSES IN EGYPT.
On SATURDAY—
GRAND GALLA PATTI MATINEE.

Matinees WEDNESDAYS and SATURDAYS, at 2 o'clock.

APOLOGETIC CARD.

It is with deep regret that the Manager is again compelled to apologize for the non-appearance of Mr. WM. HANLON. The disappointment this time is not attributable to the accident which has for several months disabled him; but his absence is occasioned by a severe and sudden indisposition, which seized him at the moment when he was ready to fulfill his engagement. The Manager has, therefore, only to beg the usual kind indulgence of his audience for a few days, when he has every reason to hope that Mr. Hanlon's health will enable him to appear before them.

The following note from Mr. Hanlon's physician was received by the manager last evening:

"William Hanlon, being severely indisposed, will be unable to appear this evening. He is suffering from a sore throat."

Young Men's Christian Association.

PROGRESS OF RELIGIOUS INFLUENCE AMONG THE YOUNG.

The Young Men's Christian Association met last evening in Rev. Dr. Adams' Church, in Madison-square, for the purpose of celebrating the eighth anniversary of the foundation in this City of that organization. At the close of the opening prayers and hymns, Mr. S. G. Goodrich, the President, read the annual report, from which it appears that the Association, notwithstanding the fact that it had been attempted to be choked by some hard substance, is still alive. The rooms of the Association, he said, had been better attended throughout the past year than previously. The number of active, associate, life, and honorary members, now amounted to 948, of whom 181 had been entered as new members during the past year. Delegates from a great many churches had attended the Society's monthly meeting, and good boarding-houses, and promising situations had been procured for many young men through the instrumentality of the Association. The only regret was that the Association was weak, because of the fact that it was now in debt.

Mr. Wm. B. Holmes, the Treasurer, submitted the subjoined financial report:

On the debit side:
To balance due from Treasurer	$516 65
To cash donations	1,650 95
To members dues	862 00
To Church collections	47 30
To sunories	49 23
To balance due Treasurer	28 99
Total	$3,154 82
As on the credit account:
By rent	$1,037 50
By salaries	545 32
By gas and coal bills	185 75
By returned loans	205 93
By incidental expenses	293 65
By postage	54 90
By periodicals	38 97
By borrow and loan account	305 93
By balance due former Treasurer	296 37
By cash on hand	90 44
Total	$3,154 82

From this it seems that the cash on hand is now but $90 44.

Rev. Wm. Hague, D.D., in the course of a very brief but admirable address, said that the sentiment, of which the address was the exponent, was in itself heart-cheering, but he was sorry to say that the report did not give utterance to sentiments more in keeping with the moral wants of the age. But twelve years ago the first of these institutions was planted in Boston, and now, everywhere but in New-York these Societies occupied a realm which might sway a moral power that would not only direct the religious inclinations of the young men of America, but those of the whole of Europe. He referred to these Young Men's Christian Associations as an agency by which to refute the sarcasm of denominationalism which was urged by Roman Catholics as the leading mark of Protestant error, and dwelt particularly on the service which such Societies might render to the young and inexperienced adventurer from New-Hampshire, Vermont or any of the other New-England States, who, influenced by his companionship here, would either fail or fail in his struggle for eminence in social life, or in his effort to acquire the best religious incentives. The speaker contrasted the case of two young men, one of whom was, unfortunately led astray by temporal allurements, having, from a perusal of the New-York Times as a family paper, and the representation of soi-distant friends, been led to the City, where he had last been seen swaggering throughout Broadway in a shabby-genteel coat, waving a cane, hopelessly gone as a debauchee, and experiencing hell even here. For, though hell were reserved for a future state of being, yet it did not begin there, for it come to man even in this world.

Rev. James Eells, of Brooklyn, was the succeeding speaker. Having argued the necessity of promoting such institutions, he contended, in opposition to those who said that they were usurpers of the place of the Church, that it was the church at work and that it was doing by detachments what the whole Church could not do.

The proceedings were closed by benediction, which was pronounced by Rev. Mr. McKown.

The American Seaman's Friend Society.

THIRTY-SECOND ANNIVERSARY.

The Thirty-Second Anniversary of the American Seaman's Friend Society, was celebrated in Dr. Cheever's Church last evening, with singing and addresses and other appropriate exercises. The Chair was occupied by Pelatiah Perit, Esq., who, after prayer by Rev. Dr. Cox, spoke briefly of the progress of the Society, as an appropriate introduction to the report, which, on the conclusion of his remarks, was read by Rev. H. Loomis, one of the Secretaries. The report stated that "at an early period in the operations of the American Society, agents were sent out to the Southern ports, and to the cities of the West, to awaken an interest of the cause. The result has been the establishment of a large number of local societies, and two or three of a more general character. The receipts into the treasuries (not including the Boston branch, not yet reported,) have been, for the year, $72,640 79. The receipts into the Treasury of the parent Society are $48,436 84, an increase over last year of $20,961 48. The disbursements during the same time have been $72,970 26; from the Treasury of the parent Society, $48,216 93, leaving the present floating debt about $5,000. The stations occupied by these Societies combined, are on the Labrador coast, Norway, Denmark and Sweden, France, China, Sandwich Islands, Chili, Peru, San Francisco, New-Orleans, Galveston, Mobile, Richmond, Philadelphia, Boston, Portland, and the principal cities on the lakes, rivers and canals of the West. More than one hundred sailors have been furnished with small libraries to take with them into the forecastle at sea. More than $1,000 expended in this way have been furnished by Sunday Schools for ten-dollar libraries, to be placed in the hands of these sea-missionaries. The Sailors' Home has received, during the year, 2,865 boarders—total, since it was opened, eighteen years, 56,194. Destitute men and boys relieved, (at an expense of $981 39,) 213. Amount deposited by boarders in bank, and sent or carried to friends, nearly $27,000. These figures tell the story of its continued usefulness.

Following the report a brief address was delivered by Capt. A. Bartlett, Marine Missionary at Boston, in which he related many interesting anecdotes of conversions of sailors, and the benefits following from the labors of the Society. He was followed by Capt. A. H. Foot, of the United States Navy, who traced the progress in the character of the sailor in the Navy from 1830 to the present time. At the time he entered the Navy the sailors were better trained, understood their business better, than the sailors in the Navy now; but at that time, and during the first ten years of his service, he never heard a sailor, and seldom an officer, express any interest in religion. Since that, an improvement had been noticed, and he was happy to say he believed it was progressing, with the best results to the service.

The closing address was made by Rev. Walter Clarke, who delivered the annual sermon before the Society on Sunday evening; and then with the Doxology and benediction, the meeting separated.

Union Theological Seminary.

EXERCISES OF THE GRADUATING CLASS.

The Twenty-third Anniversary of the Union Theological Seminary was held last evening at the Mercer-street Presbyterian Church, (Rev. Dr. Clarke's.) A large audience was in attendance. The various Professors in the Seminary occupied seats in the pulpit, Rev. Dr. Skinner, Professor of Pastoral Theology, acting as Chairman. Several other eminent divines, among whom we noticed Rev. Dr. Adams, Rev. Dr. Asa D. Smith, and Rev. Dr. Lambert, also occupied seats on the platform. The exercises were opened by prayer from Rev. Dr. Lambert. Brief essays upon the following subjects were delivered from the pulpit by members of the Graduating Class:

"Unitarianism in Philosophy"—H. W. Ballantine, Bloomington, Ind.; "Overcome evil with good"—E. G. Cobb, Delhi, N. Y.; "The Silence of Scripture"—D. Stuart Dodge, New-York City; "Sympathy with universal truth"—J. Allen Maxwell, New-York City; "The risks of thinking"—Arthur T. Pierson, New-York City; "Philosophy in the pulpit—David H. Taylor, Romeo, Mich.

The exercises closed by an address to the graduating class from Rev. Dr. Skinner.

The class numbered thirty-one members, as follows: Edwin Allen, John F. Baird, Elijah C. Baldwin, H. W. Ballantine, Aug. F. Beard, Frederic W. Bird, H. M. Bridgman, Lysander T. Burbank, Elisée Charlier, Asahel L. Clark, E. G. Cobb, Alfred S. Collins, D. Stuart Dodge, John B. Fairbank, Jr., John M. Forbes, Lorenzo M. Gates, Geo. S. Gray, Jas. Griffes, Norman Jones, J. H. McMonagle, Irving Magee, J. Allen Maxwell, Alex. D. Moore, G. B. Newcomb, E. M. Pease, Arthur T. Pierson, E. Seymour, Jas. A. Skinner, David H. Taylor, John S. Whitman, Herm. D. Wrage.

New-York Magdalen Benevolent Society.

CELEBRATION OF THE TWENTY-SEVENTH ANNIVERSARY—ENCOURAGING PROGRESS OF THE ENTERPRISE.

At Dr. Potts' church, corner of Tenth-street and Fifth-avenue, the twenty-seventh anniversary of the New-York Magdalen Female Benevolent Society was held last evening. The attendance was not large, scarcely one hundred persons being present. The object of the society, as described in its own minutes, is "the promotion of moral purity, by affording an asylum to erring females, who manifest a desire to return to the paths of virtue, and by procuring employment for their future support." The Asylum is located in Eighty-eighth-street, between Fourth and Fifth avenues.

The prayer at the commencement of the services yesterday evening, was offered by Rev. Dr. Potts, Rev. C. C. Dowling, the Chaplain of the Institution, read the report, from which it appeared that 154 females had been received during the last year, of whom several had been married, while others had joined evangelical churches, and been restored to their friends. The Treasurer's Report showed that the receipts of the past year had been $6,065, which had been all expended, leaving the Institution about $1,000 in debt. Still, there was no cause for discouragement. When these women had been brought in, they seldom returned to the paths of vice. Only three had relapsed out of the 154 whom they had received. The meeting was addressed by Rev. Dr. Burchard, Dr. Strong and Mr. Lindley, from South Africa. Dr. Burchard stated that the Corporation of this City granted $1,000 annually to the Institution. A collection was taken up at the door of the meeting. Although the audience was small, it is well understood that this effort to reclaim the fallen women of the City is not likely to languish for want of means of support.

The Colored Persons in Town.

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

As we have many distinguished classes of travelers in this City at present to attend the Anniversaries, I wish to give them information as to our City common carriers. The First, Second, Third, and I believe the Fourth—but I know the Eighth and Ninth avenue cars and stages, are open to colored people who behave and pay well.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

THE CASE OF REV. DANIEL WORTH.

Experience of a Citizen of North Carolina in Vending Helper's Impending Crisis—A Speech from Helper himself.

An audience variously composed, of white and colored, males and females, adults and juveniles, to the number of about a thousand, assembled at the City Assembly Rooms last evening, to hear the statement of Rev. Daniel Worth, of North Carolina, recently imprisoned in that State for vending Helper's Impending Crisis.

Mr. Edgar Ketchum presided, and in introducing Mr. Worth, said that gentleman was a native of North Carolina, a missionary of the American Missionary Association, and a preacher of the Gospel. He had been convicted of selling four copies of a book written by a native of his own State, addressed to his fellow-citizens—non-slaveholders, and not slaves—for the purpose of convincing them of the impolicy of Slavery. He had been imprisoned four months, and twice convicted on that charge. Mr. Ketchum read several extracts from a paper published in Greensboro', South Carolina, which he had received from some unknown hand. It stated that Mr. Worth had been convicted in Guilford and Randolph counties for preaching against Slavery and circulating Helper's Impending Crisis. But the indictments were only for selling four copies of the work named. And this had not occurred in Russia, or Turkey, or any far-off country, but in these United States; or in an uneducated or unchristian society, but in the United States. From the Greensboro' paper he saw that the Church in that place had contributed $3,008 for foreign and domestic missions, for education, publication, church extension, &c. And this Church had contributed more than any other Church in the Synod for these purposes. But, to show that there was some idea of what was just and unjust in North Carolina, there was an article in the same paper on "Religious Intolerance in Spain." Yet, there was not condemnation, but approval, of the treatment of Mr. Worth, in that very State. After a few concluding remarks Mr. Ketchum introduced the speaker.

Rev. Daniel Worth was then introduced, and received with great applause. He proceeded to sketch the early efforts of Quakers to teach Anti-Slavery in North Carolina. He said that being a native of the State the American Missionary Association thought he would be of service, because the people would hear him; and so they did. His work was progressing among the Anti-Slavery Churches, and probably had it not been for the Harper's Ferry excitement he would have been preaching yet. He had always studiously avoided interfering with the slaves in any way, by conversing with them, or giving them tracts. He supposed that by doing that he would have avoided all trouble. He addressed himself only to the whites. But, in one of his meetings there happened to be chattels present, who seemed to be affected by the word of God. There was present at that meeting a Rev. Geo. McNeil, of Fayetteville, who published a Presbyterian paper. That man had denounced the American Missionary Society as an Abolition organization in disguise, and having for its covert object the spreading of desolation and ruin over the South; and that man had denounced Rev. Daniel Worth as simply an Abolition emissary. The movement against him came mainly from the Church party. So bitter was the enmity that one Judge Saunders had issued a number of warrants for him—no less than four at one time—but by the providence of God they were not served. But finding that warrants out for him, he delivered himself up at Greensboro', and was tried "for speaking words calculated to make colored people uneasy," and the other for circulating a book of an incendiary character. The preliminary examination was held before three judges, one of whom, when he called his attention to the fact that the book was made up of extracts from the writings of Thomas Jefferson, as well as other Fathers of the Republic, made the remark; "Tom Jefferson said during his life a good many things, and a good deal of tomfoolery which he would be ashamed of now." [Laughter.] These judges had fixed his bail at $15,000, and at the same time a murderer at the same bar was held to bail under but $10,000, although his crime was of the most revolting character.

The laws under which he was condemned provided that for being in any way instrumental in circulating incendiary documents, the tendency of which is to make free or slave negroes uneasy, and to create insurrection, the punishment for the first offence should be imprisonment for not less than one year, and whipping at the pillory, in the discretion of the Court. And for the second offence, the penalty of death. And for any communication by word with a slave calculated to create insurrection, the penalty was thirty-nine lashes for the first offence, and death for the second.

He paid a high compliment to the Judge who presided at the trial for his fairness in administering the law. Upon conviction, he had sentenced the speaker to imprisonment for one year on each charge, suspending the pillory punishment as not, in his discretion, advisable. The speaker had suffered much from the horrible condition of the jail at Greensboro', and lost fifty pounds of flesh in two months. The reason why he was enabled to leave the State was that his counsel had taken an appeal to a higher court, and he was released under bonds of $3,000—two slaveholders being his bondsmen in each of the counties, [applause,] and he believed he had as good friends in North Carolina as anywhere else. [Applause.] He thought that Helper owed him, as well as Clark of Missouri, for advertising his book, until to-day, when the debt had been paid in a check of $50. [Applause.] Mr. Buchanan ought to look out for the Postmaster of Richmond, who was selling Helper's book by the hundred. [Laughter.] He had been a member of the Legislature of one of the States, and had become widely known and respected. He had been a magistrate in North Carolina, and he knew that his bondmen had confidence in his honor that he would return if he did not send the amount of his bond. And so he would return, if his friends did not enable him to indemnify his bondmen. But what would his audience think of the laws which compelled him to leave his [illegible] under such circumstances?

As Mr. Worth resumed his seat temporarily, to admit of the taking up of a collection on his behalf, a gentlemen who announced himself as A. Perry Sperry, of North Carolina, amid much confusion, obtained the privilege of putting a few questions to the speaker. After a number of interruptions, hissings and considerable disorder, the questions were brought out as follows:

1. Having been a magistrate, did you not know that from the circulation of Helper's book, and the preaching of your doctrines, that you were violating a law of the State?

2. Did not the citizens of North Carolina treat you as well as they could under the circumstances? And is there not, therefore, some kindness and love among the Slaveholders?

3. Whether there is not liberty to discuss the Slavery question in the South in the presence of all classes except the free blacks and slaves?

4. Why did not Mr. Worth get somebody besides Slaveholders to go his bail?

5. How did Mr. Worth get to the borders of the State?

Mr. Sperry accompanied these questions with quite a speech, in which he stated that he had given a dollar to the Sheriff of Greensboro' jail, to get Mr. Worth a warm breakfast. Upon Mr. Worth remarking that he wished the dollar had been given to him as he never saw either the dollar or the breakfast, [laughter,] Mr. Sperry corrected himself by saying that he offered to give it.

Mr. Worth answered the questions substantially as follows:

1. Having kept studiously away from the slaves, and appealing only to the whites, I did not think I was violating the law. I was a magistrate some thirty-five years before that.

2. The only means I had of judging of the sentiments of the people of Greensboro' was through the jailor and others who told me that there was a disposition to massacre me, and a strong force was required to prevent it when I was let out.

3. There is not liberty to discuss the Slavery question in the South, because of the laws which I have read providing penalties for the publication of sentiments having a tendency to make slaves uneasy.

4. I had many friends among the slaveholders, because I had always been moderate. My family and myself were well known. The bail was volunteered.

5. The manner in which I reached the borders of the State is nobody's business but my own. [Laughter.]

Mr. Sperry, in the course of his speech, was asked if a Northerner would be allowed the same freedom in the South that he had here? He replied no, for the reason that it was feared that the slaves would be incited to cut the throats of the whites.

Rev. Mr. French was now called to the platform to speak a few moments, in order to allow Mr. Worth time to rest. He expressed his abhorence of Slavery.

Mr. Worth then made a few concluding remarks to show why the Anti-Slavery work was carried on properly at the North. There was in his opinion no more need of going down South to preach against Slavery than there was to take a fire engine into a burning building to put out the fire. [Laughter.]

Loud cries were now made for Helper, it being understood that the author of the immortal Impending Crisis was in the room. In response, a tall, black whiskered, kid-gloved, black-coated, stiff-collared, light-panted, gentlemanly looking man with a hat and cane in his hand, who proved to be the veritable Hinton Rowan Helper himself, rose from one of the front seats and briefly declined to make a speech, because he wasn't prepared, and hadn't agreed to speak. Mr. Worth's oral testimony would confirm his written testimony. He took occasion to sympathize with Mr. Worth, and to call attention to the fact that Mr. Sperry was something of a poet, sold dry goods in Chambers-street, and was no friend to Anti-Slavery.

The Chairman announced that the sum of $154 had been collected for Mr. Worth, and that Louis Tappan, Oliver Johnson, and Edgar Ketchum, were a committee to receive more. He announced that Mr. Worth would be present at the Anti-Slavery meeting to-day.

Dr. Snodgrass, formerly of Maryland, called attention to the fact that there was another exile in the room—a young schoolteacher from Alabama.

A young gentleman then took the stand, and related in an unpretending way how he had been led to take charge of a female college in Salem, Ala., and, although he had kept perfectly quiet and mute on the subject of Slavery, he had been driven from the State, in consequence of the John Brown excitement, at a cost of about $600 to him, from necessary expenses incurred. The meeting adjourned with an appropriate hymn.

A Testimonial for Heenan.—The admirers of John C. Heenan, to the number of three score, met last evening at the Malta Saloon, corner of Thirteenth-street and Broadway, to take the preliminary measures for securing a testimonial to present him upon his return to this City. Capt. James M. Turner was called to the Chair, and made some laudatory remarks with reference to the pugilist, after which the following preamble and resolutions were read by Francis Houghtaler, the Secretary of the meeting, and adopted with unamity.

Whereas, John C. Heenan left the United States to meet in fair and manly combat the champion of England, who, by virtue of that position, stands the challenger of any man in the world; and we believe John C. Heenan won the belt on the 17th of April, according to the true intent and meaning of the rules of the prize-ring, under which they fought; and

Whereas, We are sure that, for his game and gallantry in a foreign land, against the most renowned boxer of this or any other age, he deserves well of his friends and all those of his countrymen who admire valor and endurance; now, be it

Resolved, That an organization be here effected to raise a sum of money to be presented to J. C. Heenan, Champion of the World, as shall be a fitting testimonial of our opinion of his prowess, a permanent benefit to him in the future, and gratifying to his feelings as an honorable, highminded man at this juncture.

Before these resolutions had been adopted, Dr. Max Langenschwartz, of No. 318 Mott-street, made a few remarks. He spoke of the late fight as a national affair, and became so enthusiastic in favor of the man in whose honor they had met, that he proposed the purchase of a banner with Heenan's name upon it, under which all patriots might rally when the United States and Britain should again meet in hostile array.

The following-named persons were appointed a committee, and authorized to receive subscriptions for procuring the testimonial:

George Wilkes, Edward Phalon, Francis Quinn, Cornelius Bryant, James Irving, H. W. Genett, Ed. Jones, George Hill, Sam. T. Webster, Thos. Burns, Staten Island; Hiram Woodruff, Long Island; C. W. Campell, Charles E. Miles, Alexander Mason, John Tipper, George Mountjoy. Mr. Thomas Houghtaler was appointed Treasurer.

A resolution congratulatory to Heenan was also passed, in which the full assurance was expressed that as "Champion of the World" he would be ready to uphold the title and invest it with the dignity which was its due. Jack Macdonald and James Cusick, the trainers and seconds of the "Boy," also received a full measure of praise and gratitude, and should Jack ever come to this country, he has been promised a hearty welcome.

Another resolution, characterizing Morrissey as an "anti-national" man, was proposed but tabled. The meeting adjourned to assemble at the same place next Monday night. Those who attended last evening were mainly merchants and brokers of sporting predilections, not more than five or six "professional men," at most, having appeared. This, however, is explained by the fact that a special invitation to the meeting had been sent to those persons only whose presence was desired, and in that category fighting-men did not come.

New Steam Fire-Engines.—The Park was almost flooded yesterday by the steam fire-engines, each of which spent several hours in the attempt to ascertain which could throw the largest quantity of water in the smallest given time. One engine, from Seneca Falls, fairly flooded the City Hall, while the other, from Portland, Me., deluged the lower part of the Park. Both were light, handy, and fair-working machines, and either would, doubtless, prove serviceable when officially called upon, but we confess ourselves unable to award the palm to either, not appreciating the specialty of the merits claimed by the inventors. It is not improbable that, eventually, steam will usurp the place of man-power in the extinguishment of fires, and an entire revolution be effected in the organization of the Fire Department. The City proper would not suffer much by the change, and Insurance offices would certainly be the gainers. Each of the engines tested yesterday can be started from the house within five minutes from the first alarm, and with their power of throwing a steady and unfailing stream for any length of time, they may eventually supersede the hand-engines. These engines, however, lack one essential qualification to insure official power—they do not vote.

The Institution for the Deaf and Dumb.—The forty-first annual Report of the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb, just published, shows a prosperous condition of affairs in that excellent charity. During the year 1859, 48 new pupils were admitted, and 4 former pupils readmitted, making the whole number under instruction 357. Of these, 59 returned to their friends during the year, leaving in the institution at the close of the term 298 pupils. Dr. Peet, the venerable President, still conducts the affairs of the institution with his accustomed energy and ability. His son, Mr. Lewis Peet, remains in charge of the High Class, and performs the duty of Vice-Principal. The mechanical department, though embarrassed by the want of suitable shops, continues to show good results. The legacy of $10,000, bequeathed by the late Seth Grosvenor, is suitably acknowledged in the Report. The Directors also state that, in view of the rapid growth of the City, the period is probably near when the sale of a part of the grounds at Fort Washington will enable them to pay off the debt still hanging over the Institution. The management of the Board is effective, and the new building is nearly completed. The annual exhibition of the pupils will take place at the Academy of Music, on Thursday, at 3½ P. M.

Republican Executive Committee.—The Young Men's Executive Committee met at headquarters, No. 618 Broadway, last evening, the President, John A. Kennedy, in the chair. Reports were presented from the various Wards, representing a highly satisfactory state of affairs in reference to the organization and hopes of the party in this City. It was announced that excursion tickets to the Chicago Convention could be had for $30, and that there would be a large representation of outsiders from this City and from Boston. No action was taken by the Committee in reference to the nomination; but from the conversation of members after adjournment it would appear that New-York would be represented as a unit in the Convention, and that her motto will be, "Seward or Secession."

Cricket.—This Convention organized on Monday evening, at the Astor House, by the election of [illegible] phia, as President; [illegible] mstown Club, as Secretary. Committees were appointed for the annual matches between the United States and Canada, and the Eleven Old Countrymen and Eighteen Americans. Nineteen Clubs sent delegates, and the Convention adjourned to meet in Philadelphia on the first Monday in May, 1861. The St. George's and New-York Clubs made up matches on their grounds during the day, in which many of the delegates took part. The Kings County Club will have a strong muster at their ground, at Bedford, on Thursday. They are at present supposed to be the strongest Club in New-York or neighborhood.

Shameful Treatment of Emigrant Passengers on Board Ship.—The passengers on board the British ship Constitution, arrived on Sunday from Liverpool, complain of receiving during the passage the most brutal treatment from the surgeon and crew that could be conceived. They were beaten and knocked about as if they were brutes. Upon leaving yesterday morning, while on board the steamer Satellite, all huddled together without any protection for their bodies, a shower of large tin cans were thrown at them from the ship by the mate and crew, severely injuring several of the passengers. Two women were so badly hurt as to require aid to walk, their heads being cut and bruised to a fearful extent.

A Glimpse of Good Pictures.—The amateurs of the French, English and Belgian schools of art may enjoy, for a few days, at Mr. Hardinge's studio in the University Building, a sight of some of the best pictures of those schools, which have recently been brought to New-York. Verboeckhoven, with his wonderful feats: Swiss Calame, in a glory of mountains; Ary Scheffer, in a sentimental dream; Conturier of the chickens, Plassan, Diaz, Sidney Cooper, Ziem, Achenbach, Lanfant, are all represented, with others, their not unworthy peers, in this charming little gallery, where they may be seen with some satisfaction by favor of the real sunshine which May has at last condescended to bring to us.

Organization of the Produce Exchange.—The Trustees chosen at the meeting of subscribers to the Produce Exchange, held on Saturday, have organized, by electing Mr. Samuel C. Paxson, President; F. M. French, Vice-President; Wm. H. Newman, Treasurer; and Edward Cromwell, Secretary. As Mr. N. H. Wolfe declined to serve as a Trustee, Mr. Adon Smith, Jr., of the firm of Smith, Mott & Co., was chosen to fill the vacancy.

AMUSEMENTS.

Academy of Music.—Rossini's opera of "Moses in Egypt" was revived here last evening, after a long and undisturbed slumber. The work is by no means a novelty in New-York, having been played by the Seguin Troupe at the old Park Theatre, and subsequently in Italian by the forces under Marti. In another shape—as an oratorio—it has been illustrated more or less successfully by almost every choral society in the City. The special merit of the present version is its excellent stage dress. Good scenery, good dresses, and much general propriety of mise-en scene have been expended on it, and successfully as regards all that related to the eye. We doubt very much if a greater degree of general excellence in these very satisfactory respects could be attained in any theatre of Europe. The success of "Moses," however, does not rest entirely on such matters. The music, without being difficult, demands careful treatment at the hands of artists who must possess all the facility of Rossini's exploded school, with some of the vigor of the modern one. There are moments when it approaches to declamation, and when vocal force and dramatic intelligence are as much needed as the mere ability to sing triplets, or any other purely Rossinian conceit. Sufficiently cast, therefore, the opera is not an unfruitful one in its opportunities; successes—at rare intervals—have been made in it.

The best honors of last evenings performance were unquestionably won by Signor Susini, who was in excellent voice, and more than fulfilled all the arduous requirements of the part of Moses. We have not recently heard this fine artist to better effect. Imposing in presence, dignified in bearing, impressive in style, he was all that could be desired. Signor Brignoli, excellent in many roles, has never displayed especial ability to sing Rossini's music, nor did he manifest new strength in the part of Amenofi. It is not in works of this character that our admirable tenor is heard to advantage. There are inequalities in his voice, and imperfections in his method, which place them beyond his grasp. It is but just to this gentleman to mention, that he was very inefficiently supported by Signor Ferri—who in all respects deceived popular expectation.

The opera has been liberally cut, and the female intensities have suffered particularly. What little was vouchsafed to Miss Patti was sung with neatness, but not grandeur. The quartette in the third act, with harp obligato, displayed her nice finish of style to the best advantage, and won the only encore of the evening. Mrs. Strakosch supported Miss Patti.

The orchestra and chorus displayed occasional, and not always excusable, evidences of hasty preparation; in the principal ensembles, however, they were quite good.

Winter Garden.—Mr. Max Maretzek announces a performance of Flotow's "Shadella," tomorrow, at the reduced rates of fifty cents to all parts of the house.

Concert in Brooklyn.—Mr. Max Maretzek's grand concert takes place to-night, at Rev. H. W. Beecher's Church. The programme contains an illustration of every Italian and German school—the past, the present, and the future. All the leading artists of Mr. Maretzek's excellent company assist in the entertainment, and our Brooklyn friends will miss an opportunity if they fail to invest fifty cents in what is unquestionably the cheapest concert of the season. Mr. S. B. Mills, the eminent pianist, is the soloist of the occasion.

Coroners' Inquests.

SUDDEN DEATHS.

From marks of violence found upon the body of John Collins, a laborer, who died in Bellevue Hospital on Sunday, as was supposed in consequence of an attack of delirium tremens, it is feared that he may have been maltreated by parties at present unknown. The Coroners are to investigate the case.... Coroner Jackman held an inquest on the body of Mr. John Murray, who died in consequence of injuries received by falling from the stoop of his house, No. 43 Perry-street, while laboring under an attack of dizziness.... The body of a man, apparently a sailor, that had been a long time in the water, was found yesterday, at the foot of Oliver-street, East River. Coroner Gamble held an inquest, but the remains were not identified. .... The same Coroner investigated the manner of the death of another unknown man, who had been found in the North River, at Twenty-ninth-street. Deceased was dressed as a laborer, and his remains were much decomposed. In both instances the verdict was "supposed drowning."

AN UNHAPPY WOMAN.

The jury summoned by Coroner Schirmer in the case of Mrs. Peyser, supposed to have died in consequence of the administration of poison, yesterday rendered a verdict that the deceased had taken arsenic intentionally. The testimony of her husband and daughter showed that depression of spirits induced her to commit suicide, and Dr. Zenker deposed that he had discovered sufficient arsenious acid in the organs he had analyzed to produce death.

Police Reports.

A REVEL AND A RIOT.

Patrick Levy, Joseph, Christopher, Matthew, William and Andrew Holliwood, became so noisy on Sabbath morning, in consequence of frequent potations, that Mr. James Reid, an old gentleman residing at No. 146 West Eighteenth-street, next door to the revelers, felt obliged to remonstrate with them. They were so exasperated at his interference, that they rushed upon him and beat him with sticks and stones, and finally knocked him down upon his own door-step, finishing the assault by thrusting a dinner-fork into his cheek, and cutting him with a table-knife. His injuries were very severe, though not fatal. Justice Kelly committed his assailants for examination on a charge of felonious assault, William Reid, son of the wounded man, having entered a complaint.

MINOR ITEMS.

Thomas Campbell, alias the Gay Deceiver, alias Honest Tom, was arrested and committed to answer a charge of having attempted to pass a counterfeit $5 bill on the Bank of the Commonwealth, Philadelphia, at the stores Nos. 583 and 663 Eighth-avenue, and at a drug-store in the same street.... Patrick Duffy, keeper of the ticket office No. 169 West-street, who is charged with having defrauded Rev. John Janes, of Missouri, to the amount of $250 in the sale of passage tickets to California, was arrested on Saturday, and held to answer by Justice Connolly in $500.

Another Meeting of Anti-Law Germans.

A loud call was made in the German papers of Saturday, for a rally of "Importers and Dealers in Wines and Liquors, Brewers," and Lager-bier-dom generally, as well as "every German whose means will allow," at the Stadt-Theatre, in the Bowery. The object of the meeting was, to gain strength for the "Anti-Sunday Association," and to settle the principle that "what is lawfully allowed on so-called week-days shall be allowd on the so-called Sunday." The moderate sum of $1 is received for membership until the 15th May, when $3 will be charged.

The meeting came off at 10 o'clock, but the demonstration corresponded poorly with the promise of the announcement. Not more than twenty persons were present, and it was stated that only fifty-two members have joined the Association. Even the amiable keeper of the Volks-Theatre, Eustachi, was not there, but Lindenmuller was. Eustachi's arrest, on Monday last, may have disgusted him. It was stated that only one brewer was present. The proceedings were quite tame. It was agreed to print the Constitution, &c., so as to awaken the sympathy of the hotel-keepers. If any member of the Association is arrested for Sunday Theatricals, he is to call upon Lehts or Harmann, and he will be helped out of the scrape. It was stated that everything depended on the Captains of Precincts and on the Police Justices. Some of them would make no arrests or convictions. Justice Osborn was alluded to as specially friendly; and if they could manage to be taken before him, they would be certain to be discharged. [Perhaps the Patrolmen will thank them for this information.]

It was announced that the Stadt-Theatre would give a performance on Saturday night for the benefit of the rebellion fund; and Lindenmuller and Eustachi are to follow suit.

If the parties interested in violating law cannot get up more formidable demonstrations than these we have reported, we shall soon tire of the task. We suppose the fact to be, that while some thousands of Germans are not unwilling to carouse in a Sunday theatre, if opened to them, very few of them care enough about it to fight the battles of the score or two of men who wish to pocket the profits of their dissipation. A little vigor on the part of the police, and a few $500 fines against owners, keepers, players, and all concerned, will end this unequal contest.

The Case of the Wanderer—The Rescue of Capt. Farnum.

The Savannah Republican says:

"On Tuesday, May 1, about dusk, our County jail was visited by some four or five persons, who effected the rescue of Capt. Farnum, who was arrested in New-York, and brought to this State for trial, on a charge of complicity with the Slave-trade in the Wanderer case. The circumstances of the rescue, so far as we can learn, are as follows: Capt. Farnum, it appears, has been allowed every privilege at the jail consistent with a liberal construction of duty—his confinement being almost a nominal thing. Arrangements were made between him and the rescuers that Capt. Farnum should give up his parol, under which he had been allowed such freedom from restraint, when the former were to rush in, bind the jailor, and release the prisoner. This was carried into effect, an opportune moment being selected, when Mr. Stone, the jailor, was out on parade, and Peter Luddy, his deputy, in charge. Capt. Farnum requested Luddy to lock him in his cell, which was done, and Luddy had returned to the hall leading through the jail, when he was met and held by the rescuers, his keys taken from him, the prisoner released and conducted to a carriage in waiting, and driven off to the Pulaski House, where he was surrounded by his friends, who further defied the law by protecting him from arrest.

The District-Attorney, Hamilton Couper, Esq., heard of it, while casually visiting the office of the Pulaski House, and endeavored to take the necessary proceedings for his rearrest; he agreed to let the matter rest until yesterday morning. Farnum's friends, in consideration of Mr. Couper's consenting to adopt that course, pledged him their honor that they would produce the man and make application for bail, the ensuing morning; such application not having been made at 2 o'clock, Mr. Couper notified Mr. Farnum and his friends that he should now require that Mr. Farnum should surrender himself into the custody of the jailor before he would consent to notice any application, after that hour, for bail on his part, and that if they refused to adopt that course, he would call upon the proper authorities and require his forcible arrest. Mr. Farnum then surrendered himself into the custody of the jailor of Chatham County. We understand he will make his application for bail this morning.

At one time matters wore a squally appearance in the office, and 'shooters' were exhibited with freedom. The parties engaged in the affair, we believe, make no secret of their complicity; they did not even take the trouble to disguise themselves, but went about their work with boldness and apparent disregard of consequences."

Partial Deafness and Discharges from the Ear.—Dr. Hartley generously offers to attend all persons suffering from affections of the ear, at his office, No. 763 Broadway, N. Y., without charge until cured, thereby proving his success unequaled, and protecting the deaf from being swindled by paying self-styled aurists exorbitant fees in advance, and the infliction of still more serious evils by permitting the application of dangerous remedies by inexperienced and unskillful hands. Dr. H. may here state that he has no connection whatever with any person advertising to cure deafness, neither has he given permission for the publication of a certificate purporting to emanate from him, and cannot, therefore, be responsible for any alarming consequences resulting from rashness and desperation. The loss of money may not be material to some persons, but the deprivation of one of the most important of the senses ought to be regarded and treated with more than ordinary solicitude. Deafness, noise in the head, and all disagreeable discharges from the ear speedily and permanently removed, without causing the least pain or inconvenience. A cure in all cases guaranteed where malformation does not exist. Thirteen years' close and almost undivided attention to this branch of special practice has enabled him to reduce his treatment to such a degree of success as to find the most confirmed and obstinate cases yield by a steady attention to the means prescribed.

The following testimonials are submitted with confidence. They will show at least in what estimation his professional qualifications are held by some of the most distinguished medical men of the country:

TESTIMONIALS.

"I have had the pleasure to meet Dr. Hartley in practice, and have been led to form a favorable opinion of his character, both in profession and as a gentleman.

W. H. PARKER, M. D., Professor of Surgery."

"From my intercourse with Dr. Hartley, I have found his deportment to be correct and gentlemanly.

VALENTINE MOTT, M. D."

Simply Ridiculous.—It is simply ridiculous to suppose that those Rich Silks now offered by Chas. Heard & Co., No. 301 Grand-street, at 60, 70, 80, 90 and 100 cents per yard, were ever manufactured for less than 40 per cent. above those prices, or that their extensive assortment of rich Lace Curtains and Lace and Muslin Drapery can be duplicated at the prices in any other establishment in the City. Housekeepers should make a note of this. There are other housekeepers' goods from late auction sales, selling at half their value. Embrace the opportunity while it lasts, for there is no knowing what a day may bring forth.

Oak Orchard Acid Spring Water.—This water is pronounced by distinguished physicians to be highly valuable as a medicinal agent. We know that ten thousand remedies are in the market, and advertised to cure as many different diseases, but we have such strong faith in the virtues of this water, that we do not hesitate to recommend it to invalids generally. Its curative qualities have been thoroughly tested. Call and see testimonials. H. W. Bostwick, Sole Agent, No. 574 Broadway, New-York.

Knocks.—One has to endure a great many hard knocks in this world. There is one Knox whose Hats we not only indorse, but rather like. They are superb, are those Hats of Knox's, at the corner of Broadway and Fulton. Neatness of finish, elegance and beauty of style, mark his Spring fashion. Those who desire a really beautiful and fashionable Hat, go to Knox. Knox has the peculiar talent of being able to please everybody.

Steam Engine Trial.—The steam fire engine Greyhound, from Portland, Me., will be tried at Laird's Pole, at 3 o'clock this (Tuesday) afternoon. It is hoped that the engine built at Seneca Falls will also be upon the ground, and thus a distinction can be made of the relative merits of the two machines. Probably Lee & Larned may have one of their engines on the ground.

To the Traveling Community:

The elegant steamboat Metropolis having been thoroughly overhauled during the past Winter, and received four new boilers by the Allaire Works, will resume her regular trips in the Fall River line this (Tuesday) evening.

Holloway's Ointment vs. Consumption.—It is a well-known fact that the human system absorbs this salve as meat does salt. Its curative properties on external ulcers are beyond dispute, and consequently its sanative virtues are equally successful on ulcerated lungs.

May 3, off Chincoteague passed a quantity of painted buckets. April 16, off Donna Maria, spoke schr. Walter Irving, Small, of Provincetown, with 235 bbls. sperm and 10 do. whale oil; was making for Charleston ground to cruise and for home. The W. J. reports that about April 1, whaling schr. Rienzi, of Provincetown, fell in with, on the south side of Porto Rico, a brig, about 300 tons, abandoned, with all sail set, having on board a large quantity of provisions and rum, and otherwise fitted for a slaver. Bullet holes were found in the doors in the cabin. The cabin was much disfigured, as if an affray had taken place. She had no papers, colors, or anything on board whereby she could be identified: was taken in charge by the officers of the schooner, and will be brought to the United States.

Schr. Alexander M., Christie, Jacmel April 18, with logwood and coffee to Kunhardt & Co. 29th, lat. 35 20, lon. 74 16, in a heavy gale from the eastward, while setting storm trysail, shipped a heavy sea which swept decks of everything movable; same time, Cornelius Davison, the steward, was washed overboard and lost. In the same gale lost jib-boom and everything attached. May 1, while laying to in the same gale, in co. with a brig and a schooner, at 2 A. M., made out the brig had signals of distress flying; set the head of the jib and run down to her; fell in with her boat and took from it Capt. Beadling, the mate and wife, and seven seamen of the brig Alfred Exall, of Philadelphia, for Havana. May 4; saw schr. Matchless, hence, bound S., with boat and all her head-gear gone.
